ON THE COVERS

The front cover of the 2012 Boston College football media guide features senior offensive tackle Emmett Cleary and senior defensive tackle Kaleb Ramsey. The 2012 schedule is displayed on the back cover. The inside front cover recognizes All-America linebacker Luke Kuechly and depicts the individual accolades he earned during his unprecedented Boston College career. The inside back cover salutes four former Boston College football players who were on the active roster of the Super Bowl XLVI champion New York Football Giants organization.

FACTS & FIGURES

3 – The Eagles have produced a top-10 pick in the NFL draft three times in the last five years – QB Matt Ryan (3rd; 2008), DT B.J. Raji (9th; 2009) and LB Luke Kuechly (9th; 2012).

3 – Boston College has had one of its former linebackers on each of the last three Super Bowl winning teams – Mark Herzlich (NY Giants, 2012), Robert Flores (Packers, 2011) and Jo-Lonn Dunbar (Saints, 2010).

5 – Over the last seven seasons, Boston College ranks fifth nationally in rushing defense, allowing its opponents just 99.53 yards per game over a span of 91 games.

6 – Boston College was the most represented collegiate football program in Super Bowl XLVI as there were six former Eagles that were on either the New England Patriots roster or the New York Giants roster – defensive end Ron Brace '08 and center Dan Koppen '02, roster members of the Patriots, and cornerback Will Blackmon '06, linebacker Mark Herzlich '10, defensive end Mathias Kiwanuka '05 and guard Chris Sneer '04 were each roster members of the Giants.

9 – Boston College has produced nine NFL draft first-round picks in the last 12 seasons (since 2000).

Boston College NFL first-round draft picks (since 2000):

YEAR	NAME	POS.	TEAM	RD.	PICK
2012	Luke Kuechly	LB	Panthers	1	9
2011	Anthony Castonzo	OT	Colts	1	22
2009	B.J. Raji	DT	Packers	1	9
2008	Matt Ryan	QB	Falcons	1	3
2008	Gosder Cherilus	OT	Lions	1	17
2006	Mathias Kiwanuka	DE	Giants	1	32
2002	William Green	RB	Browns	1	16
2002	Marc Colombo	OT	Bears	1	29
2000	Chris Hovan	DT	Vikings	1	25

10 – LB Luke Kuechly became Boston College's 10th consensus All-America honoree in 2011, its first two-time consensus All-American in 2012. BC's previous consensus All-America selections are QB Jamie Silva (2007), RB Mike Cloud (1998), TE Pete Mitchell (1994), DL Mike Ruth (1985), QB Doug Flutie (1984), WR Tony Thurman (1984), FB Mike Holovak (1942), and Gene Goodreault (1940) and Luke Urban (1920).

32 – Junior PK Nate Freese has made 32 of his 41 field goal attempts in his first two seasons as BC's starting kicker. Freese is tied for sixth among all returnees nationally in career field goals per game, averaging 1.3 per contest.

58 – Since joining the ACC for the 2005 season, Boston College has won 58 games, the second-highest total of any ACC team, trailing only Virginia Tech (84).

88 – BC won 88 games in the 2000s (2000-09, including bowls), tying Auburn and Southern California for 11th among all teams in college football. Only 10 teams – Boise State (112), Oklahoma (110), Texas (110), Ohio State (102), Florida (100), LSU (99), Virginia Tech (99), Georgia (98), TCU (95) and Miami (92) – achieved more victories during the 2000s. Bookended with an 8-4 campaign in 1999 and a 7-6 season in 2010, BC captured 103 victories in 12 straight winning seasons from 1999-2010.

98.5 – Boston College leads the nation with 98.5 percent of offensive yards returning according to research by philsteele.com. The formula incorporated passing, rushing and receiving yards.

243 – The number of rushing yards for Boston College junior TB Rolandan Finch against Maryland in the Eagles' 28-17 win last year. Finch had 39 carries and scored twice. The yardage total was the highest for an ACC player in 2011.

1,222 – BC junior TB tandem of Rolandan Finch and Andre Williams combined to rush for 1,222 yards, 7 TDs and a 4.3 per-carry average last fall.

In the last five years, Boston College ranks fifth nationally in rushing defense, allowing its opponents 99.53 yards per game.

Junior RB Andre Williams and the Eagles will look to build on late-season momentum in 2012.

BOSTON COLLEGE BEGINS ITS 114TH FOOTBALL SEASON ON SEPT. 1 AGAINST MIAMI

As Boston College prepares for the 2012 campaign, it does so in the interest of continuing to build upon the success it produced down the home stretch last season. For, although the Eagles slipped below .500 on the year and missed out on postseason play, the program showed promise and resolve in capturing three victories (over Maryland, North Carolina State and Miami) in the final five games of the campaign.

That growth was perhaps never more evident than in the team's final game at Miami when the Eagles combined an intelligent defensive performance featuring four interceptions from four different defenders with an efficient, yet diverse, offensive attack that was highlighted by two tailbacks combining for 153 yards on the ground and 196 yards out of the arm of quarterback Chase Rettig, who completed 76 percent of his passes.

Boston College loses only six starters from that team, including All-America linebacker Luke Kuechly, four-year starting cornerback Donnie Fletcher and special teams extraordinaire Ryan Quigley. While you don't replace Kuechly, the NCAA career record holder for tackles per game, the Eagles appear to have a solid corps of linebackers in the program.

All totaled, 17 starters and 44 lettermen are back. In fact, it's interesting to note the Eagles lead the nation with 98.5 percent of its offensive yards returning in 2012.

Boston College will also feature a new offensive staff headed by coordinator Doug Martin and offensive line coach Jim Bollman. Martin came to BC having served as Kent State's head coach for seven seasons from 2004-10. Bollman, who is entering his 36th year coaching, served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Ohio State the last 11 seasons, coaching in three BCS national championship games during his tenure with the Buckeyes. In all, the 2012 Eagle coaching staff has 198 years of combined experience among them.

The Eagles open the 2012 season against Miami, the same team they played and beat in last year's finale. This time the game is in Chestnut Hill, Mass., and will be played on Sept. 1.

OFFENSE

Quarterbacks (Lettermen Returning/Lost:3/0)

Boston College's starting quarterback position is in the firm grasp of 6-foot-3, 213-pound junior Chase Rettig. He has started 21 games over the last two seasons and has thrown for 3,198 yards and 16 touchdowns. Rettig finished his sophomore season strong, leading the Eagles to victories three times in the final five games of the season, including a 24-17 win over the Hurricanes in which he completed 13-of-17 passing attempts for 196 yards and two touchdowns.

Josh Bordner, a 6-foot-4, 221-pound product of Sykesville, Md., returns for his sophomore campaign and is listed second on the quarterback depth chart. Bordner saw limited action in five games (all consecutively to close out the season) primarily as a rushing threat in 2011.

Senior Mike Marscovetra, a letterman in 2010, and senior Dave Shinskie, a two-year letterman from 2009-10, will provide capable competition and veteran depth at the position, with highly-regarded redshirt freshman Christian Suntrup out of St. Louis, Mo., also competing for playing time.

Running Backs (Lettermen Returning/Lost:3/1)

The junior tailback tandem of Rolandan Finch and Andre Williams combined to rush for 1,222 yards, seven touchdowns and a 4.3 average yards per carry last fall. Bolstered by the contributions of sophomore letterman Tahj Kimble, who carried the ball 43 times and registered eight receptions out of the backfield, the running back position should prove to be an offensive strength for Boston College in 2012.

Finch returns after having led the team in rushing attempts (157) and rushing yardage (705) as a sophomore. His 2011 campaign was highlighted by a 243-yard rushing performance in the team's victory at Maryland, an effort that stood as an ACC best for tailbacks last fall. Williams is a 6-foot, 220-pound power running back who has registered 219 career attempts for 978 yards and six touchdowns.

Offensive Line (Lettermen Returning/Lost: 6/2)

The graduation of versatile veteran offensive linemen Nathan Richman and Mark Spinney, who combined to participate in more than 60 games during their careers, will open two key positions to fill along the Eagles offensive line. This might give reason to pause. Yet, the performance of Cleary, a 6-foot-7, 313-pound senior who has 25 career starts entering the season, the addition of veteran offensive line coach Jim Bollman, and the return of Wetzel and White, who each have more than 12 career starts, should give fans a reason for optimism. Cleary ranks second behind tight end Chris Pantale among offensive players in starting experience.

Gallik, a 6-foot-3, 300-pound product of Evergreen Park, Ill., played in nine games as a redshirt freshman last fall and registered three starts along the offensive line. Vardaro, a 6-foot-5, 312-pound guard, played in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman last fall and started each of the last eight games at right guard. Williams, a 6-foot-4, 301-pound product of Lynn, Mass., played in seven games as a freshman and recorded his first collegiate start in the team's season finale at Miami.

Among the returnees competing for playing time this year are junior Bryan Davis, sophomores Seth Betancourt and Aaron Kramer, and redshirt freshmen Dave Bower, Dan Lembke, Liam Porter and Victor Nelson.

Wide Receivers (Lettermen Returning/Lost: 6/1)

Two fifth-year seniors – Donte Elliott and Colin Larmond – are the senior returnees at the wide receiver position. Larmond is one of the team's top receiving threats. He is a 6-foot-3, 202-pound product of Whippany, N.J., who has led the Eagles in yards per catch in each of his last two seasons (2009 and 2011). Elliott has played in 20 career games. The Houston, Texas, resident registered three receptions for 26 yards as a junior last fall.

Three juniors – Alex Amidon, Johnathan Coleman and Bobby Swigert – return and aim to build on their experience of their first two collegiate seasons. Amidon, a versatile local product of Greenfield, Mass., has 21 career receptions for 558 yards and three touchdowns and has 15 carries for 59 yards and one touchdown in his first two seasons. Coleman, a 6-foot-4, 228-pound junior, has 19 career receptions and eight career starts entering the 2012 campaign. Swigert has been a favorite target of Chase Rettig in their first two seasons. A 6-foot-1, 186-pound junior from Louisville, Ohio, Swigert has led the team in receptions in each of his first two seasons at the Heights and has caught 80 career passes for 964 yards and seven touchdowns.

Spiffy Evans, who emerged as the team's primary kickoff return man and played in 10 games as a true freshman in 2011, aims for a breakout sophomore campaign. Brian Miller will also look to contribute to the Eagles passing attack. Miller is a 6-foot-4, 232-pound tight end that will also be used in H-back formations. Freshman Joel Karim Zoungrana, who is from Montreal, caught four passes for 109 yards and two touchdowns in the spring game.

Tight Ends (Lettermen Returning/Lost: 2/1)

Six-foot-six, 255-pound senior Chris Pantale leads all Atlantic Coast Conference returning players entering the 2012 season with 36 career starts at tight end. He has ranked among the team's top three receivers and has been the top receiving tight end in each of his first three seasons at Boston College. A native of Wayne, N.J., Pantale has 77 career receptions for 797 yards and five touchdowns. He will seek to build upon his final performance of the 2011 campaign in which he led the team with a career-high 70 receiving yards and two touchdowns in a 24-17 win at Miami (Nov. 25).

Junior Mike Naples, who played in nine games last fall, and sophomore Jarrett Darmstatter, who caught four passes for 44 yards in the spring game, will also be relied upon at the position.

DEFENSE

Linebackers (Lettermen Returning/Lost: 6/2)

Perhaps one of the more intriguing storylines about Boston College football is how its defense will adjust to the loss of Luke Kuechly, a dynamic defensive performer who accounted for 535 tackles in three seasons.

Among the returnees at the position are senior Nick Clancy and juniors Steele Divitto, Andre Lawrence and Kevin Pierre-Louis.

Clancy is a 6-foot-3, 232-pound senior from Plainfield, Ill., who has seen action in 30 games over the last three seasons. Divitto, a 6-foot-3, 238-pound junior from Ridgefield, Conn., started all 12 games at strong side linebacker last fall and finished the season ranked third on the team 92 tackles. Lawrence, a native of Hartford, Conn., saw action in 10 games as a sophomore last fall. Pierre-Louis is a 6-foot-1, 215-pound junior from Norwalk, Conn., who leads at Boston College returnees on the defensive side of the ball with 22 career starts. He finished the season ranked second on the team with 74 tackles in nine games.

Rounding out the returnees are sophomore Sean Duggan and redshirt freshmen Nick Lifka. Duggan is a native of Cincinnati, Ohio, and a graduate of St. Xavier who played in 10 games as a true freshman and is set to slide into the middle. The 6-foot-4, 228-pound Duggan registered three starts at weak side linebacker. Lifka will battle for playing time at the linebacker position having earned the program's scout team award during his redshirt freshman season in 2011.

Defensive Backs (Lettermen Returning/Lost: 8/2)

Senior Jay McGillis Scholarship recipient Jim Noel highlights a total of seven returning lettermen in the Eagles' defensive backfield. Noel is a 6-foot-4, 200-pound product of Everett, Mass., who has played in 33 games over the last three seasons and is the team's starting strong safety.

Noel joins seven sophomores – cornerback Manuel Asprilla, cornerback James McCaffrey, cornerback Al Louis-Jean, cornerback C.J. Jones and safety Josh Keyes, safety Spencer Rositano, safety Sean Sylvia and safety Dominique Williams – to form the returnees in the Boston College defensive backfield.

Asprilla, a 5-foot-10, 167-pound sophomore from Everett, Mass., saw action in each of the last nine games of his true freshman campaign in 2011. He recorded four starts and was listed either first or second on the depth chart in each of those nine games. McCaffrey, a native of Winchester, Mass., played in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman and picked off two passes in the spring game. Louis-Jean, a 6-foot-2, 195-pound product of Brockton, Mass., played in 10 games as a true freshman last fall. Jones, a resident of Wilmington, Del., returns for a sophomore campaign after having been granted a medical hardship waiver last fall. Jones saw action in 12 games as a freshman in 2010 and suffered a season-ending injury in the second game of the 2011 campaign at Central Florida. Keyes played in nine games as a true freshman last fall while Rositano, Sylvia and Williams each appeared in 11 games. Rositano finished his true freshman campaign ranked fifth on the team with 40 tackles last fall.

Defensive Line (Lettermen Returning/Lost: 7/2)

Among the returnees, Edebali, an end, leads all defensive linemen with 16 career starts. In 2011, the 6-foot-2, 258-pound product of Hamburg, Germany, started all 12 games and recorded 27 tackles and a team-high five pass breakups. Ramsey, who missed nearly all of the 2011 season because of injury and was granted a medical hardship waiver, has 13 career starts at the position while Quinn, a 6-foot-6, 312-pound senior from Elmsford, N.Y., started eight games last fall and has 10 career starts entering the fall campaign. Quinn tallied 21 tackles, including four tackles for a loss, last fall. Appiah played in 11 games as a redshirt freshman last fall and was listed at the top of the team's depth chart at left tackle eight times. The 6-foot-5, 291-pound Appiah recorded seven tackles for loss which tied for third among all BC defensive performers. Mihalik made his collegiate debut against Massachusetts on Sept. 24 last fall and played the final nine games of the season. He recorded six tackles and two pass breakups. Ricci played in all 12 games as a true freshman in 2011, earning four starts.

Among others competing for playing time are sophomore Mehdi Abdesmad, sophomore Matt Murphy, redshirt freshman Kieran Borcich and redshirt freshman Connor Wujciak.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Lettermen Returning/Lost: 3/1

Boston College returns three [of four] specialist letterwinners in 2012 – placekicker Nate Freese, long snapper Sean Flaherty and holder Gerald Levano.

After a remarkably successful performance by the field-goal kicking unit in 2010, in which then-freshman Freese was successful on 88 percent of his field goal attempts (22-of-25) and 96 percent of extra points (23-of-24), Boston College was successful on 10-of-16 field goals attempts (63 percent) while maintaining its exemplary performance on extra points in 2011, connecting on 26-of-27 PATs. It will surely be looking to return to form in 2012 as Freese is back for his third season as the team's placekicker. A 6-foot, 185-pound junior from Strongsville, Ohio, Freese has connected on 32-of-41 career field goal attempts in the last two seasons (78 percent) and has already matched the school record with four field goals in a game three times.

Punter Ryan Quigley's graduation marked the end of four outstanding seasons of exemplary contributions and steadfast reliability to Boston College's kickoff and punt teams. A four-year starter, Quigley played in 52 career games and concluded his collegiate career having dropped and downed 78 punts inside opponents' 20 yard line and stands as the school's career record holder (284) for punts.

Levano, who served as the back-up punter and primary holder on field goals and extra points last fall, is listed atop the depth chart. Also competing for playing time will be 6-foot-5 redshirt freshman Alex Howell.

COACHES & STAFF

HEAD COACH FRANK SPAZIANI

Franks Spaziani is beginning his fourth year as head coach of the Boston College football team and his 16th season overall on the BC football staff. Widely regarded as one of the best defensive minds in college football, he was named head coach in 2009 after a 10-year run as the Eagles' defensive coordinator and two as running backs coach. Spaziani's head coaching record now stands at 20-19 (he was credited with BC's 25-24 win over Navy in the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl as he served as interim head coach following the departure of Tom O'Brien).

The son of first-generation Italian-Americans Joseph and Regina Spaziani, "Coach Spaz" grew up in Clark, N.J., and never forgot his roots. The values of hard work, toughness, dedication, humility, loyalty and honesty he learned as a boy have formed the foundation for his coaching philosophy. Spaziani would become the last player recruited to Penn State by a young assistant named Joe Paterno, who went on to become the head coach the next year. Talented in baseball as well, Spaziani was originally recruited as a quarterback but eventually became a defensive end before serving as a graduate assistant for Paterno.

His first season as head coach at Boston College (2009) required more than a few tough decisions due to several key injuries. By mid-summer, expectations were low; at the ACC's Operation Football in July, the league's media predicted the Eagles would finish dead last in the Atlantic Division. But the team over-achieved, finishing with an 8-5 record, tied for second in the ACC Atlantic Division, and played in its 11th straight bowl game, giving national power USC all it could handle in the third-most-watched bowl game televised on ESPN. True freshman linebacker Luke Kuechly was named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year after coming out of nowhere to lead the league in tackles and averaging more tackles-per-game than any rookie since the NCAA began tracking the stat in 2003. And the Eagles continued their proud tradition of achieving in the classroom, becoming one of only six FBS programs in the country to receive a Graduation Success Rate score of 90 or better.

The 2010 season followed suit. The Eagles began the season 2-5 and were plagued by injuries to key defensive starters Alex Albright, Wes Davis and DeLeon Gause. Midway through the season, 25 of the 44 players on the team's two-deep were freshmen or sophomores. But led by the nation's leading tackler (Kuechly), the Eagles became the first team in ACC history to win five consecutive games after losing five in a row. In so doing, they became eligible for their 12th consecutive bowl game. The squad led the ACC in total defense and the nation in rushing defense.

Thanks in no small part to a series of injuries to key players, the 2011 team stumbled to a 1-6 start before regrouping to finish the season strong, winning three of their final five ACC games. Kuechly led the nation in tackles for the second straight year and became the most decorated defensive player in Boston College football history. He captured the FWAA's Bronko Nagurski Award as the nation's top defensive player of the year; the Lombardi Award, given to the nation's top interior lineman or linebacker; the Dick Butkus Award, as the nation's top linebacker, and the Lott IMPACT Defensive Player of the Year Award. A two-time consensus All-American, Kuechly was the 2011 ACC Defensive Player of the Year and a first-round NFL draft selection. A number of outstanding freshmen and sophomores saw significant playing time by the end of the season, providing an optimistic glimpse into the future. Three freshmen, in fact, earned Freshman All-America honors, including DT Dominic Appiah, G Bobby Vardaro and LB Sean Duggan.

Spaziani's reputation as an outstanding coach was built upon a decade of producing one of the toughest defenses in college football. In 2008, the Eagles ranked in the top 10 in the nation in seven defensive categories, including interceptions (first, 26); turnovers gained (second, 36); total defense (fifth, 268.14 ypg.); red zone defense (sixth, 72 percent); first downs allowed (sixth, 14.71 pg.); rushing defense (seventh, 91.2 ypg.), and pass efficiency defense (98.81). The Eagles advanced to the ACC Championship game for the second consecutive season. In addition, Herzlich was named ACC Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2007 Spaziani's defense ranked second in the nation and led the ACC in rushing defense, allowing just 75.5 yards per game. Senior free safety Jamie Silva was a consensus All-America first-team selection and was one of three finalists for the 2007 Jim Thorpe Award, which is given to the nation's top defensive back. Spaziani was part of a staff that led the Eagles to an 11-3 finish, the first BC team to win 11 games since 1940.

The 2007 Eagles began the season 8-0 and were ranked No. 2 in the nation in both major polls. The team won the Atlantic Division of the ACC and finished 10th in the final AP poll, BC's best finish since the 1984 season.

In 2006, Boston College led the ACC with five defensive touchdowns. The Eagles were third in the ACC in scoring defense and Jo-Lonn Dunbar was named National Defensive Player of the Week when he scored two of BC's three defensive touchdowns vs. Maryland. In 2005, BC led the ACC in rushing defense (90.8 ypg.) and red zone defense (25-39, 64.1 percent) and was third in scoring defense (15.9 ypg.). The 2004 Eagles were ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense, top 20 in rushing defense and top 25 in pass efficiency defense. In 2003 BC was ranked second in the Big East in total defense and rushing defense. During the 2002 season, the Eagle defense was ranked 13th nationally in passing defense, 25th in pass efficiency defense, 23rd in scoring defense and 37th in total defense.

Spaziani joined the BC coaching staff after three seasons with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. During his coaching tenure at Calgary, he served two seasons as the defensive coordinator. Prior to his coaching stint at Calgary, he served as the defensive coordinator for two years with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Spaziani spent nine years as a member of the Virginia coaching staff, where he was defensive coordinator for his last five seasons in Charlottesville, after having been defensive backs coach for the first four.

Spaziani is a 1969 graduate of Penn State, where he was a star defensive end on the Nittany Lions teams that tied Florida State in the 1967 Gator Bowl and defeated Kansas in the 1969 Orange Bowl. He began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant to Joe Paterno at Penn State. After three years as an assistant high school coach, he became head coach at Hempstead (N.Y.) High School in 1973, and a year later, at Raritan (N.J.) High School. He joined head coach George Welsh as an offensive assistant at the U.S. Naval Academy in 1975 and went with Welsh from Annapolis to Virginia in 1982.

Frank and his wife, the former Laura Heikel, are the parents of three children, Joseph and twins Avery and Andrew.

AWARDS & HONORS

- John Baronian Award, Lifetime Contribution to Football, 2007
- New England Coach of the Year, 1997
- Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame, 1983

Barry Gallup's name is synonymous with Boston College football. Now in his 33rd year as a member of the staff, Gallup, one of the best receivers in school history, served as a BC assistant coach for 20 years (1970-91) and Northeastern's head coach for nine years (1991-99) prior to returning to his alma mater as assistant athletics director for football operations in May 2000. He was promoted to associate athletics director for football operations in May 2008.

Gallup has dedicated a large part of his life to football in Boston. In early 2007, Gallup received the John Baronian Award for Lifetime Contribution to Football from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston at its annual awards ceremony.

After starring on the football field at Swampscott High for legendary coach Stan Bondevitch, earning All-America honors as a senior, he entered BC in 1965 and would become the greatest receiver in the school's history before graduating in 1969. He set school marks for receptions with 87 and receiving yards, 1,325 (Mel Briggs eclipsed both of the records in 1973). He had 735 yards and established a season record for catches (46) as a senior (a mark eventually broken by Gallup protégé Brian Brennan in 1983). He also played two years of college basketball for legendary former Boston Celtic Bob Cousy.

Upon college graduation, Gallup turned down an offer to play with the Boston Patriots and began his career in teaching and coaching, working in the Swampscott school district. In 1970, he embarked upon a 20-year coaching career with the Eagles when he became a part-time assistant coach at BC. He became a full-time assistant in 1973, coaching the team's defensive line. His role changed to receivers and tight ends coach and head recruiting coordinator when Jack Bicknell arrived as head coach in 1981.

As an assistant first to Joe Yukica, then to Ed Chlebek and finally to Bicknell, Gallup established himself as a top recruiter and football strategist. Gallup played a key role in attracting some of the nation's most talented players to BC, including Heisman Trophy winner and current New England Patriot Doug Flutie, Joe Nash, Fred Smerlas and Peter Cronan. He coached several future professional players while directing the receiving corps, including Brian Brennan (Cleveland Browns), Mark Chmura (Green Bay Packers), Kelvin Martin (Dallas Cowboys), Pete Mitchell (New York Giants), Tom Waddle (Chicago Bears) and the brothers Flutie, Doug and Darren, who both went on to play in the Canadian Football League. As BC's primary recruiter, he was one of the key builders of bowl-bound BC teams in 1982 (Tangerine Bowl), '83 (Liberty), '85 (Cotton) and '86 (Hall of Fame). He was inducted into BC's Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 1983.

Gallup took over the Northeastern football program in 1991. After going 4-7 his first year, Gallup built the program into a winner that finished with a 6-5 mark in 1996 and an 8-3 record in 1997. He was named New England Coach of the Year in 1997. His 1998 senior class left as the most successful in school history. He left NU with an overall coaching record of 38-60-1. Before returning strictly to coaching in 1998, Gallup had an eventful four-year tenure as NU's athletics director in which the department successfully earned NCAA certification, initiated a comprehensive strategic plan to achieve gender equity, and added several prominent coaches, including highly respected hockey coach Bruce Crowder and men's basketball coach Dave Leitao.

Gallup resides in Wellesley with wife, Victoria. They are the parents of Lisa Ann, a nurse in New York City and a 2009 Boston College graduate; Barry Charles Jr., a financial analyst at Morgan Stanley in New York City and a Notre Dame graduate and football letterman; and the late Darren Douglas.

SUPPORT STAFF

STEVE BUSHEE

Assistant Athletics
Director, Sports Medicine

Steve Bushee is entering his 29th year as a member of the Boston College Sports Medicine staff and is entering his 14th year directing BC's Sports Medicine. He was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director/Sports Medicine in 1999.

The Lebanon, N.H., native is a 1981 graduate of Colgate University where he majored in biology. Bushee earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Boston College in 1994.

In May 2001, Colgate honored him with the naming of the Steve Bushee Award, which will be given annually to the Colgate student athletic trainer who demonstrates dedication and expertise in the care of student-athletes.

Bushee works with the Eagle football team throughout the year, taking an active role in pre-season practice, the fall season, winter conditioning and spring practice. He also tends to the medical needs of BC's skiing and sailing teams.

In addition to standard sports medicine duties, Steve handles the administration of athletic insurance, athletic educational programming; oversees the department's drug testing program; and is a staff liaison with outside medical providers.

During his first four years at the Heights, Bushee was the head athletic trainer for the Eagles' ice hockey team, but has been working with the football program since 1988.

Steve and his wife, Laura, are the parents of two children: Joseph, a Boston College junior, and Elisa, a freshman at Boston College. The Bushee family resides in Wayland.

BILL TOOF

Video Coordinator

The man in charge of BC's highly sophisticated computer analysis and video equipment system is Bill Toof, who has been the Eagles' video coordinator since 1990. Toof played a key role in developing the nonlinear editing system that is now an industry standard for pro and Division I football video analysis.

In addition to his duties in the video production room, Toof also served as the head coach of Boston College's highly successful men's and women's ski teams for 30 years.

Toof is a 1969 graduate of Boston College. In addition to being a two-time Eastern Collegiate ski champion and nationally ranked slalom skier, he played both football and baseball while an undergraduate. A talented skier, he became an accomplished coach, taking over the school's fledgling ski team the season after graduation and bringing it to the level where both Eagle men's and women's teams were consistently among the top five in national competition. He was voted Eastern Collegiate Ski Conference Coach of the Year in 1985, '92 and '98.

Toof was inducted into the Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 2009.

Bill and his wife, Nancy, have two sons: Shaun, a former BC football letterman at wide receiver, and Bo, who worked all four years in the football video department while matriculating at Boston College, graduating in 2004.

KELLY WHEELER

Assistant Director
of Football
Operations

Kelly Wheeler is in her sixth year as Assistant Director of Football Operations. Prior to her promotion in 2007, she had served as a staff assistant in the football office for two years.

Wheeler is a William and Mary graduate and earned her MBA and a master's degree in Sport Management from the University of Massachusetts in 2002.

Prior to coming to BC, Wheeler served as Coordinator of Championships and Director of Championships for the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) from 2003-05. Previously, she served internships at BC (2002-03), the Pawtucket Red Sox (2001) and the Cape Cod Baseball League (2000).

Kelly and her husband, Matt, reside in Wayland with their son, Edge, and daughter, Maggie.

MIKE POIDOMANI

Head Strength and Conditioning
Coach, Football

Mike Poidomani is in his first year as head coach for strength and conditioning for the Boston College football program.

Since 2010, Poidomani served as director of strength and conditioning/owner of MJP Strength and Conditioning. Additionally, he served as a sales representative from Life Fitness (a division of the Brunswick Corporation), an equity partner/advisor for GYMCO, and a sales representative for Gym Source, a national company specializing in health and fitness equipment.

The 2012 season marks his eighth year affiliated with Boston College. Poidomani joined the Eagles' staff as assistant director of strength and conditioning in 1996, was elevated to the director's position one year later, and served in that capacity for the next six years (1997-2002) prior to working in private business.

Poidomani, whose duties include design, implementation and oversight of strength and conditioning for Eagle football, he has trained more than 350 athletes in football, hockey, baseball and softball.

He originally came to the Heights (in 1996) after spending five years at Western Michigan University. Upon receiving his bachelor's degree in health/fitness from Springfield (Mass.) College in 1991, he began as a graduate assistant strength coach at WMU. In that position, Poidomani assisted in the strength and conditioning and flexibility training of the school's hockey, football, men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball teams.

In February 1993, Poidomani was appointed as WMU's interim strength and conditioning coordinator. After receiving his master's degree in exercise science two months later, he assumed the duties on a permanent basis. In this role, he designed and implemented specific strength and conditioning programs for each of the university's 17 varsity sports. In addition, Poidomani designed a 5,200-square foot strength and conditioning facility, introduced strength and conditioning camps and served as a member of the Drug Education Committee.

In addition to his administrative duties, Poidomani developed and administered the weight training and conditioning programs for the football team, and directed the weight training regimens for WMU's hockey team, and men's and women's basketball teams. His efforts helped WMU's ice hockey team to earn two NCAA Tournament berths (1993-94 and 1995-96) and its men's basketball gain an NIT bid (1992-93).

Poidomani is a professional member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Poidomani and his wife Linda reside in North Attleboro with their children – Nicholas (13), Teresa (11) and Michaela (3).

SCOTT McLAFFERTY

Assistant Strength and Conditioning
Coach, Football

Scott McLafferty is in his first year at Boston College and is the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Eagles' football program. He joined the staff in late July 2012.

McLafferty comes to the Heights after having spent six seasons (2007-12) on the strength and conditioning staff at Rice University in Houston, Texas. During his last three years on the Owls' staff, McLafferty served as the associate director of strength and conditioning. As associate director, McLafferty's duties included daily responsibilities working with the Rice football team. He was also responsible for oversight of the Owl basketball team's strength and conditioning training as well as the strength training for the Rice baseball team's pitching staff.

Prior to being named associate director for football in February 2009, McLafferty was coordinator and head strength coach for the Rice men's basketball and men's and women's tennis teams for two years.

McLafferty began his full-time collegiate employment as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech University in August 2004, serving in that position for one academic year before he was elevated to head strength coach for Bulldog men's basketball. He remained in that position for 1½ years from 2005-07.

McLafferty also served as a student assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oklahoma State University from 2001-04. He graduated from Louisiana Tech in 2007.

He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Association and USA Weightlifting.

McLafferty is a native of Stillwater, Okla. He is married to the former Sarah Berger.

MIKE VIGNEAU

Assistant Director,
Sports Medicine,
Football

Michael Vigneau is entering his ninth season as athletic trainer for the Boston College football team. He works with the Eagle football team throughout the year, taking an active role in pre-season practice, the fall season, winter conditioning and spring practice.

After serving two years as a resident athletic trainer in the Boston College Sports Medicine Department where he worked closely with the Eagles' football and track and field teams, Vigneau was named assistant director for sports medicine for football in September 2006.

He also served as an orthopedic technician at Brigham and Women's Hospital prior to working as a resident trainer at the Heights.

A 2003 graduate of Colby-Sawyer, Vigneau earned his master's degree in education administration at Boston College in December 2007.

A native of Millbury, Mass., Vigneau is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association as well as the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He is a licensed athletic trainer in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Michael and his wife, Shari, have a son, Connor. They reside in Walpole.

TOM BOURDEAU

Graduate Assistant
Football Coach -
Defense

Tom Bourdeau is in his second year as a member of the Boston College football staff and is in his first year as a defensive graduate assistant. During the 2011 season, Bourdeau was a recruiting graduate assistant who worked closely with high school prospects, maintained the program's sophisticated recruiting database and assisted in special teams' coordination.

Prior to his arrival at Boston College, Bourdeau spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Stonehill College (2007-10), where he worked with the running backs, wide receivers and offensive line. Additionally, he served as the team's video coordinator and recruiting coordinator for two years apiece. He earned the title of assistant head coach in his final year with the Skyhawks.

A 2007 graduate of Colby College with a degree in administrative studies with concentration in mathematics and a minor in education, Bourdeau was a four-year letterman on the offensive line and as a long snapper who earned All-NESCAC first-team honors as a senior captain.

NICK CHARLTON

Graduate Assistant
Football Recruiting

Nick Charlton is in his first year as a full-time member of the Boston College football staff and is the recruiting graduate assistant. Charlton joined the Eagle staff in January 2012 after having served as an intern within the football coaching and equipment operation during the 2011 season.

A 2011 graduate of Boston College who earned a degree in philosophy and minored in history, Charlton served four years as student manager for the football team, assisting in drill preparation and all aspects of game week equipment and travel operations for the equipment staff. In 2009 and 2010, he was head defensive manager under head coach Frank Spaziani. Additionally, his in-game responsibilities included calling out personnel groupings for the defensive coordinator.

A native of Salem, Mass., and former quarterback at Salem High, Charlton earned the program's Student-Athlete and Lead-By-Example awards. He is a 2007 President's Education Award recipient and member of the National Honor Society.

RICH GUNNELL

Graduate Assistant
Football Coach –
Offense

Rich Gunnell, Boston College's career record holder for receiving yards, is in his first year as a member of the Boston College football staff and is an offensive graduate assistant. He joined the Eagles staff in June 2012 and spent the previous year as the assistant defensive line coach at Tufts University.

A 2009 graduate of Boston College with a degree in communications, Gunnell was a four-year letterman at wide receiver who served as team co-captain during a senior season in which he earned the team's most valuable player award and All-ACC honorable mention accolades. He registered 181 receptions for a school-record 2,459 yards and 18 touchdowns during his four years (2006-09).

Gunnell enjoyed a brief professional career with the Kansas City Chiefs organization prior to joining the coaching ranks. He is a native of East Windsor, N.J., and is currently pursuing his master's degree in the Woods School of Advancing Studies.

CORY MARTIN

Graduate Assistant
Football Coach –
Offense

Cory Martin is in his first year as a member of the Boston College football coaching staff and is an offensive graduate assistant. Martin spent the 2011 season as a volunteer to the New Mexico State coaching staff where he worked with the offensive and recruiting coordinators and the team's wide receivers.

He joined the Eagle staff in February 2012 as a video and special teams' graduate assistant. He was named an offensive graduate assistant in June 2012.

Martin was a student assistant coach at Kent State during the 2010 season and worked with the quarterbacks. He served as the in-game signal caller for the offensive coordinator.

Martin is a 2011 graduate of Kent State with a degree in sports administration.

SEAN WELCH

Graduate Assistant
Football Coach –
Defense

Sean Welch is in his second year as a member of the Boston College football staff and is in his first season as a defensive graduate assistant. Welch spent the 2011 season as the offensive graduate assistant and worked closely with the offensive line and scout teams and assisted in all aspects of the program's offensive operations.

He joined the Eagle staff in January 2011 as a video and recruiting graduate assistant. He was named an offensive graduate assistant in September.

Welch was an assistant coach at Bowdoin College, his alma mater, in Brunswick, Maine, in 2009 and 2010. There he worked with the cornerbacks, served as the program's video coordinator and assisted in recruiting.

A 2009 graduate of Bowdoin with a degree in economics, Welch was a three-year starter in the Polar Bear secondary before a shoulder injury ended his career. He earned the Wallace C. Philoon Trophy for contributions from a non-letterman as a student assistant coach as a senior.

SUPPORT STAFF

KEVIN TOMASZEK

Graduate Assistant
– Video

Kevin Tomaszek is in his first year as the video graduate assistant for Boston College football. A volunteer video assistant at the Heights for the 2007-09 seasons while studying at nearby Boston University, Tomaszek spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as the video graduate assistant for Louisiana Tech football where his primary role was filming and breakdown of practices and games and creating weekly highlight packages.

Tomaszek is slated to join the Boston College staff in August 2012. He is a 2010 graduate of Boston University where he earned a bachelor's degree in secondary history education.

During his time as an undergraduate at BU, he worked for BC as a volunteer video assistant, managing filming, editing and breakdown of practices and games and assisting in creating highlight films. Additionally, he was a BC camp administrator during the summer months.

CATHY ALBANO

Staff Assistant
Football
Administration

Cathy Albano is in her 21st year as a member of Boston College football staff. Albano has been an administrative assistant in the Eagles' football office since October 1991.

Prior to her arrival at the Heights, Albano was employed in Newton District Court Clerk's office for five years. She received her Associate's Degree from Mass Bay Community College.

A native of Waltham, Mass., she and her husband, Frank, a senior facilities supervisor at residential life at Boston College, reside in Newton. They have three children – Marc, Bryan and Caitlyn. All three are Boston College graduates. Marc is a 2000 graduate and is currently a fund performance analyst for Fidelity Investments; Caitlyn, a 2003 graduate who later received her master's in special education from BC, is currently employed by the Boston Public School system; and Bryan, also a '03 graduate who is a firefighter for the city of Newton. Bryan and his wife, Sara, welcomed their first child, Jack, in May 2012.

BRIAH BOGGS

Assistant to Head Football Coach

Briah Boggs is in her second year as a member of the Boston College football staff and is the assistant to head coach Frank Spaziani. Boggs joined the Eagle football staff in July 2011. She is responsible for organization, preparation and maintenance of the head coach's schedule, including day-to-day facilitation of media obligations and assists in communication efforts with the student body.

Prior to Boston College, Boggs spent more than one year as a sales assistant at Shape magazine in New York City, providing capable assistance and support to the directors in pursuit of increased digital and print advertising sales and managing multiple account portfolios to one of the nation's top women's lifestyle magazines. Additionally, she has previously served internships in news, sales and public relations.

She is a 2009 graduate of Wagner College with a degree in arts administration and minor in marketing. Originally from Seabrook, N.H., she currently resides in Somerville, Mass.

ANDREW RAPHAEL

Assistant
Recruiting Coordinator

Andrew Raphael is in his second year as a member of the Boston College football staff as the assistant recruiting coordinator. Raphael joined the Eagle staff in summer of 2011 and works closely alongside recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach Mike Siravo.

He is involved in all aspects of daily recruiting operations, including oversight of film evaluation of incoming prospects and organization and implementation of official and unofficial prospect visits to Boston College's campus.

Raphael was a student assistant to the national recruiting coordinator at the University of Miami, his alma mater, for two years prior to his arrival at Boston College. He is a 2011 graduate of Miami with a degree in sports administration and communications. Raphael worked previously in marketing and media relations for the 2010 World Golf Championships at Doral and served as a marketing intern with the New York Islanders hockey club for two years.

DAVE SANSEVERO

Administrative Assistant

Dave Sansevero is in his eighth year as an administrative assistant to the Boston College football staff. A graduate of Boston College and Boston College High School, the 2012 season marks his 16th year directly affiliated with the high school and college.

Sansevero joined the football office in July 2004. He serves as a liaison to the Gridiron Club (Boston College's booster organization), providing organization and maintenance of its membership database and coordinating of all gridiron events, and assists in fostering Boston College football alumni and community relations. Additionally, he assists all football coaches in day-to-day activities and endeavors.

A native and resident of Quincy, Mass., Sansevero earned a bachelor's degree in history in 2001. He first started working with BC athletics as a student at the Flynn Recreation Complex.

SENIOR MANAGERS

Liam Bevans

Patrick Casey

Francisco Venta

Three senior managers will lead Boston College student managers who work with the 2012 Eagles football team.

Liam Bevans, a communications major and sociology minor in the College of Arts & Sciences, is in his fourth year as team manager. Bevans assists in many aspects of day-to-day football practice operation, including preparation and facilitation of practice drills for the defensive backs, and travel and maintenance of team apparel. He is a native of Duxbury, Mass., and a 2009 graduate of Duxbury High School.

Patrick Casey, a history major who is also pursuing a degree in Latin American studies in the College of Arts & Sciences, is in his fourth year as team manager. A 2009 graduate of St. Ignatius Prep in San Francisco, Casey's team responsibilities include maintenance and organization of all equipment, field set-up pre-practice and pre-game, and various day-to-day team administrative duties. This summer, he is serving as a training camp equipment intern with the San Francisco 49ers.

Francisco Venta, a finance major with an operation management concentration in the Carroll School of Management, is in his third year as team manager. Venta also assists in several aspects of day-to-day football practice preparation related to program equipment needs. Chestnut Hill, Mass. (AP) - Backup Kain Colter threw for 197 yards and ran for 71 more with a touchdown to lead Northwestern to a 24-17 victory over Boston College in the season opener.

Colter completed 17 of 24 passes and Northwestern won for the first time since Dan Persa ruptured his Achilles tendon last Nov. 13. Persa, who had been touted as a Heisman Trophy contender by the school, was a late scratch.

Andre Williams, who replaced the injured Montel Harris, ran 22 times for 114 yards and two touchdowns. Luke Kuechly had 19 tackles, two for a loss, and an interception for BC.

BC brought the ball to the Northwestern 19 with 18 seconds left before a false start moved them back and took 10 seconds off the clock. Chase Rettig was sacked by Vince Browne on the final play and remained on the field for several minutes.

Ifeanyi Momah caught eight passes for 171 yards for the Eagles, but Nathan Freese missed a pair of field goals. Rettig, a sophomore who took over as the starter midway through last season, completed 24 of 44 passes for 375 yards with one interception, but he couldn't find anyone open on the game's final play.

Persa led the nation in completion percentage and total offense last year before he had surgery on a ruptured Achilles tendon Nov. 13; Northwestern lost its final three games, including the TicketCity Bowl. Boston College was without Harris, the Atlantic Coast Conference preseason player of the year.

Neither absence seemed like much of a setback.

Harris' replacement, Andre Williams, broke free for 69 yards on the first play from scrimmage. But BC settled for a field goal, and got nothing on its next trip inside the Northwestern 15 when Freese missed a 31-yard field goal.

The Eagles made it 10-3 when Kuechly intercepted Colter and ran it back to the Wildcats' 3-yard-line. After a penalty, Williams scored on a 6-yard run to give BC the lead.

Colter tied it when he ran it in himself from 3 yards out to complete a 10-play, 80-yard drive just before the half and then led Northwestern on another just like it to start the second. Mike Trumpy scored on a 5-yard run to give the Wildcats a 17-10 lead, and they went up 24-10 on a perfect option pitch from Colter to Adonis Smith with 9:24 left.

Rettig hit Momah for 38 yards to the 2, and two plays later Williams ran it in to make it 24-17 with 6 minutes left. But Northwestern stopped the Eagles on fourth-and-10 with under 3 minutes left, and by the time BC got the ball back there was 1:37 left and they were on their own 36.

After an intentional grounding left the Eagles with third-and-16 from their own 30, Rettig brought them to the Northwestern 19 with 18 seconds left. But there was movement before the snap on the left side of the offensive line, resulting in a 5-yard penalty and a mandatory 10 second runoff from the clock.

With 4 seconds left, Rettig rolled right but could not get rid of the ball before Browne tackled him to end the game.

Orlando, Fla. (AP) - Central Florida used a trio of fourth quarter touchdowns and three field goals from kicker Nick Cattoi to top the Eagles 30-3.

The Knights defense was stingy against Boston College, holding them to 141 total yards. The Eagles were only 1 of 12 on third down as quarterback Chase Rettig was sacked three times and intercepted twice.

Rettig finished 10 of 23 passing for 70 yards. Andre Williams, who racked up 122 yards and two touchdowns last week against Northwestern, had only 59 yards 12 carries.

UCF clung to a 9-3 lead throughout the third quarter until Godfrey completed back-to-back passes of 17 and 28 yards in the final minute of the period to get the Knights inside the 5.

Godfrey snuck in from a 1-yard out two plays later to put the Knights up 16-3 with 14:51 left in the game.

Rettig was then picked off by A.J. Bouye on the Eagles' ensuing possession, giving the ball right back to the Knights on the Boston College 49.

UCF's offense picked up where it left off, in six plays they got back into the end zone--this time via a 1-yard plunge by Murray--to extend its lead to 23-3 with 9:30 left.

Murray had four carries for 38 yards during the drive, including a 19-yard scamper.

Godfrey added one more 4-yard touchdown rush to provide the final margin.

UCF won time of possession in the first half and took at 9-3 lead into the locker room.

The Knights had the ball for 19:52, compared to 10:08 for the Eagles. Boston College had just four possessions in the half, punting on their final three.

UCF didn't get in the end zone, but did put its extra time to use. The Knights were aggressive from the start, mixing 13 passes into their 37 total plays for the half.

The Knights also racked up 100 rushing yards, led by Godfrey's 46 yards on nine carries.

Meanwhile, Cattoi made all three of his field goals from 36, 35 and 32 yards away.

UCF's defense also kept Williams at bay in the opening 30 minutes. His first touch of the night went for 16 yards, but his final seven carries of the half netted 27 yards.

Boston College had a few big plays, but managed only four first downs. Rettig was also a paltry 3 for 8 for 27 yards through the air. He was also sacked twice deep in Eagles' territory to set up a Knights' score.

The Eagles' biggest bright spot of the half came on the defensive side, with linebacker Luke Kuechly posting 10 tackles.

Both teams traded field goals in quickly played first quarter.

Boston College got on the scoreboard first via a 47-yard field goal by Nate Freese. The drive nearly stalled on the UCF 33-yardline, but was kept alive by a fourth down pass play by Rettig to Bobby Swigert.

UCF then answered with a 36-yard boot by Cattoi, capping a 15-play, 49-yard drive that took more than seven minutes.

Chestnut Hill, Mass. (AP) - Sean Renfree tied a school record with 40 completions and scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 1-yard run with just under 10 minutes left to lead Duke to a 20-19 victory over Boston College in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both teams.

BC had an excellent chance to win, but Nate Freese's 23-yard field-goal attempt hit the left upright and bounced back with 43 seconds left. Freese had already made two long field goals.

Duke won for just the second time in its last 11 conference openers.

Renfree threw 52 times for 359 yards and two touchdowns to Conner Vernon. He tied the Duke record of 40 completions set by Thaddeus Lewis in 2009 against North Carolina State.

Duke rallied from a 19-7 deficit late in the first half and went ahead with 9:57 to go. Renfree led the decisive 70-yard drive after the Blue Devils wasted two solid scoring opportunities in the second half - an interception at the BC 3 and a missed 33-yard field goal attempt.

With a first down at the Eagles 4, Anthony Boone was held to no gain and Jamison Crowder gained 3 yards before Renfree just made it into the end zone on a play that was reviewed.

BC scored first on a 31-yard pass from Chase Rettig to Tahj Kimble, ending a 55-yard drive with 5:57 left in the first quarter. It began after Spenser Rositano blocked a punt by Alex King and Will Thompson recovered.

The Eagles made it 10-0 on a 43-yard field goal by Freese with 4:16 gone in the second quarter. Duke cut the lead to 10-7 on a 53-yard pass play from Renfree to Vernon, who caught the ball between two receivers and ran about 30 yards to the end zone. It was Renfree's first scoring pass of the season.

Freese's 47-yard field goal made it 13-7 with 4:03 left in the half. Andre Williams scored on a 7-yard run with 1:21 remaining, but Freese missed the extra point.

Duke then marched 63 yards in just 51 seconds to score on Renfree's 21-yard pass to Vernon and trailed 19-14 at halftime.

Chestnut Hill, Mass. (AP) -- Boston College linebacker Kevin Pierre-Louis has a number usually worn by running backs. He had a chance to look like one, too.

Pierre-Louis picked up a fumble and ran 96 yards down the middle of the field for a score to help the Boston College Eagles finally smile a bit after their first win of the season, 45-17 over Massachusetts.

"The ball was tipped and we always practice tip drills," said a wide-smiling Pierre-Louis, who wears No. 24. "I was happy to see on the Jumbotron -- (linebacker) Luke Kuechly and a couple of guys behind me. They had my back."

Chase Rettig threw for three touchdowns and Pierre-Louis had one of two TDs returned by BC's linebackers for scores.

Linebacker Nick Clancy had the other fumble return for a score -- 16 yards late in the third quarter -- about 4 minutes before Pierre-Louis.

The Eagles (1-3) were off to their worst start since opening 1991 with four losses under then-coach Tom Coughlin.

"You look for positive reinforcements," BC coach Frank Spaziani said of the win. "A victory is the best re-enforcement you can have."

Leading 38-10, UMass QB Kellen Pagel was hit near the goal line, Pierre-

Louis caught the ball in the air and ran down the middle of the field.

Jesse Julmiste had a 100-yard kickoff return for a score for the Minutemen, and Jonathan Hernandez carried 22 times for 80 yards and a TD.

It was the 24th meeting between the schools, dating back to the first in 1899. BC leads 19-5, winning its seventh straight.

Rettig completed 14 of 22 passes for 196 yards with the three TDs and no interceptions. Andre Williams carried 20 times for 95 yards and last season's Atlantic Coast Conference leading rusher Montel Harris returned from preseason left knee surgery and ran nine times for 27 yards.

Colin Larmond, Jr. had two TD catches -- 36 and 37 yards -- and backup running back Tahj Kimble had a 3-yard run for a score. The Eagles' Hampton Hughes picked off UMass Pagel on the first offensive play of the game, giving BC the ball at UMass' 47.

Eleven plays later, Rettig hit tight end Lars Anderson with a 1-yard score to give BC a 7-0 lead.

After a short drive by the Minutemen, the Eagles took over on their own 45 and marched to the UMass' 8 before the stalling. Nate Freese booted a 26-yard field goal, making it 10-0.

Chestnut Hill, Mass. (AP) -- Tanner Price threw a 47-yard TD pass to Chris Givens on Wake Forest's first possession of the second half as the Demon Deacons opened a 15-point lead before holding off Boston College 27-19.

Boston College's Montel Harris carried 23 times for 108 yards, setting the school's all-time rushing record with a 26-yard carry early in the fourth quarter, with 3,735 yards, breaking the mark held by Derrick Knight (2003). Knight had 3,725 career yards.

Boston College's Chase Rettig completed 23 of 47 for 188 yards with a TD pass and an interception, but he was stopped a yard short on a fourth-and-4 run at Wake Forest's 44 with just under two minutes left.

The Demon Deacons, who scored on their opening drive of both halves, held a 24-9 lead early in the final quarter.

Nate Freese kicked four field goals -- three in the opening half -- for the Eagles (1-4, 0-2).

After holding Boston College to a three-and-out on the first drive of the second half, Price hit Givens on a short pass and he broke free down the left sideline for a 47-yard score, leaping over an attempted tackle by Spenser Rositano near the 5 before going into the end zone to make it 24-9.

The Eagles appeared to be ready to get closer, but Harris fumbled at the Demon Deacons' 5 to end the ensuing drive.

They picked off a pass and took over at Wake's 45 on the next possession, but Rettig threw a deep pass into good coverage and was picked by Cyhl Quarles at the 5.

After coming up empty three times after good field position, Boston College converted on the next try when Rettig's 2-yard toss to Alex Amidon capped a 41-yard drive and cut it to 24-16.

Harris set up the score with his record-breaking 26-yard carry, but he left the game briefly after injuring his left knee.

Boston College moved to Wake's 10 before the drive stalled with 6 minutes left. Freese's 32-yarder cut it to 24-19.

The Demon Deacons needed a big play and Price delivered. On a third-and-15 from his own 15 with just over five minutes left, Price hit Terence Davis on a 44-yard pass along the right sideline. On the next play, Michael Campanaro hit Givens for 36 yards, setting up Jimmy Newman's 22-yard field goal that made it 27-19 with 2:59 left.

Wake Forest took the opening kickoff and marched 74 yards on 11 plays, with Harris capping it on a 2-yard run to make it 7-0. Price was 4 of 5 on the drive for 57 yards.

Clemson, S.C. (AP) - Tajh Boyd threw for a touchdown and ran for another before leaving No. 8 Clemson's 36-14 victory over Boston College with a hip injury that raised concerns about how long the Tigers could stay undefeated without him.

The severity of Boyd's injury wasn't immediately known. He came in leading the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense and has been the catalyst for the Tigers' first 6-0 start in 11 years.

Clemson (3-0 ACC) got five field goals from Chandler Catanzaro and 117 yards and a touchdown from tailback Andre Ellington to put away Boston College (1-5, 0-3).

The Eagles played without ACC preseason player of the year Montel Harris, who aggravated a knee injury in last week's loss to Wake Forest.

Boyd, a sophomore, had thrown for 200 yards or more each game this year and was on his way to a third 300-yard performance when, with Clemson ahead 23-7, he was hit by Boston College defensive end Max Holloway. Boyd tried to get up but rolled back to the ground as coaches, teammates and trainers surrounded him. Death Valley, 78,000 strong for homecoming, was silent as Boyd remained on the ground.

He was finally carried off the field, his left leg held above the turf. He was taken to the locker room for X-rays and Clemson announced he had a hip injury.

Boston College tried to catch Clemson groggy after Boyd's departure, Chase Rettig's 24-yard pass to Bobby Swigert cutting the lead to 26-14. The Tigers, though, found their footing and fast-paced attack under freshman backup Cole Stoudt, the son of longtime NFL quarterback Cliff Stoudt. Catanzaro added a 47-yard field goal and Ellington broke out for a 36-yard touchdown run on fourth-and-1 to seal the victory.

The Eagles have had their successes at Death Valley -- they've won two of the three times they've played here since joining the ACC in 2005 -- but were without injured star Harris and his backup, Andre Williams.

Blacksburg, Va. (AP) - David Wilson didn't even wait to get to the locker room at halftime before finding running backs coach Shane Beamer and giving him a simple message.

"We need to run the ball more," Wilson said he told the head coach's son.

The coaches agreed. When Wilson gave the Hokies the lead with a 42-yard touchdown run on their first possession of the second half, No. 16 Virginia Tech had finally found its offensive rhythm and was on its way to a 30-14 victory against surprisingly stubborn Boston College.

"I was like, 'Let's run the ball,'" said Wilson, who had just six carries for 21 yards in the first half but finished with 17 for 134. "I felt like we were getting away from what we do."

Logan Thomas took over after Wilson's long run gave the Hokies a 13-7 lead. He hit Marcus Davis for a 20-yard touchdown, and then ran in from the 1, giving the Hokies a 27-7 lead.

The Hokies (7-1, 3-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) won their third in a row, all games in which Thomas has scored at least one touchdown on the ground and through the air.

The Eagles' first touchdown drive covered just 35 yards on their opening series after a shanked punt, and their last - 72 yards in 11 plays - came in the fourth quarter with the Hokies leading 27-7.

"Once we got inside the 50, we stalled," Eagles quarterback Chase Rettig said. He accounted for both scores, running two yards for the first and hitting Chris Pantale for a 7-yard TD.

Eagles linebacker Luke Kuechly, who had 19 tackles to stay on pace for an NCAA record, said the attention to getting Wilson involved after halftime highlighted his potential.

The Hokies had plenty of trouble in the first half, managing just a pair of field goals.

After Wilson softened things up with his long run - Thomas rolled right with him, then made an option pitch to Wilson once defenders closed in - Thomas was able to get going, too. He was 10 for 11 for 126 yards after halftime, and 22 for 36 overall for 268 yards.

The Eagles mounted their first real drive after Wilson scored, but on first-and-10 from the Hokies' 22, Tariq Edwards intercepted Rettig's pass at the 11, and Tech drove again.

Two runs by Wilson covered the first 20 yards, and Thomas had a 29-yard completion to Danny Coale before throwing one up for Davis to go get in the end zone on the next play.

The 6-foot-4 Davis easily came down with the ball despite close coverage by 6-1 cornerback Donnie Fletcher.

College Park, Md. (AP) - Rolandan Finch ran for 243 yards and two touchdowns, and Boston College defeated Maryland 28-17 for its first Atlantic Coast Conference victory of the season.

Finch, a sophomore, never before broke the 100-yard mark and had run for 266 yards in six games before Saturday. He had 152 yards rushing at half-time, finished with a career-high 39 carries and had a team-leading two catches for seven yards.

Linebacker Luke Kuechly had 12 tackles and an interception to help Boston College (2-6, 1-4) snap a three-game skid.

Maryland (2-6, 1-4) coach Randy Edsall started C.J. Brown at quarterback, then switched to Danny O'Brien in the second quarter. Both threw an interception, and neither moved the offense until O'Brien threw a 55-yard touchdown pass to Adrian Coxson with 6:39 left.

That made it 21-10, and after a failed onside kick, Finch scored his second touchdown to clinch it.

Brown went 2 for 6 for 14 yards, and O'Brien completed 14 of 35 passes for 165 yards, including 141 in the fourth quarter.

Maryland got off to a miserable start, beginning when Nick Ferrara bounced the opening kickoff out of bounds. Boston College needed only six plays to cover the 60 yards, the last five on runs by Finch for 7, 5, 9, 8 and 18 yards.

Brown threw an errant pitch on the Terrapins' first offensive play, but he recovered the loose ball and got a field goal out of the drive.

Maryland's next possession ended when Sean Sylvia intercepted a deflected pass, and two plays later wide receiver Alex Amidon scored on a 21-yard touchdown run for a 14-3 lead.

After a Maryland punt, Boston College mounted an 80-yard drive that ended with a 3-yard touchdown run by Andre Williams.

Chestnut Hill, Mass. (AP) - Chase Rettig completed 11 of 18 passes with one touchdown in the Eagles' 38-7 loss to Florida State.

Florida State's EJ Manuel threw for one touchdown and ran for another as Florida State opened a 28-point halftime lead that the Eagles couldn't recover from.

With their fourth straight win, the Seminoles qualified for a bowl game for an NCAA-best 30th consecutive year.

Boston College (2-7, 1-5), which had gone to a bowl game for 12 straight years, was guaranteed its first losing season since 1998 and was eliminated from bowl contention.

Manuel completed 12-of-16 passes for 180 yards and ran 16 times for 37 yards. Devonta Freeman ran for 62 yards and two touchdowns, and Nick O'Leary caught three passes for 87 yards.

Rettig split time with freshman Josh Bordner after the first six drives resulted in five punts and a fumble. Bordner was 1-of-2 for 37 yards, and he ran seven times for 45 yards.

Manuel did most of the damage in a dominant first half, when Florida State scored on three consecutive possessions. With 4:51 to play in the second quarter, the Seminoles led 28-0; they had outgained BC 214 yards to 16 and held the Eagles without a first down.

Bordner came into the game and, sharing time with Rettig on the drive, led BC 74 yards to the Florida State 1 before Rolandan Finch fumbled.

Finch, a former fourth-stringer who had 243 yards against Maryland last week, had two fumbles in the game while gaining 59 yards on 28 carries.

Luke Kuechly had 20 tackles - 12 solo - for Boston College, his 31st straight game with 10 or more.

Manuel threw for 321 yards and two touchdowns last week in a 34-0 victory over North Carolina State - the Seminoles' fourth consecutive game with more than 425 yards of total offense. Against BC they had 307.

Florida State failed to get a first down on its first possession, but it got the ball back on the BC 2 when Anthony McCloud knocked the ball free from Finch and Smith fell on it. Two plays and a penalty later, Manuel hit Bert Reed for an 8-yard touchdown pass.

The Seminoles scored early in the second quarter on Freeman's 12-yard run and, after another BC three-and-out, Manuel completed a 58-yard pass to O'Leary before taking it in himself from 1 yard out to make it 21-0. After another BC three-and-out, Freeman marched Florida State down the field before scoring from the 3 to give the Seminoles a 28-0 lead.

Bordner entered the game for BC and, on his first snap, ran 25 yards for the Eagles' first first down of the game. From the Seminoles' 39 he hit Bobby Swigert on a 37-yard completion that brought the ball to the 2.

But Finch was stuffed for a 1-yard gain on first-and-goal, and on second down he lost the ball on his way to the line of scrimmage.

Chestnut Hill, Mass. (AP) - Starting quarterback Chase Rettig threw for a touchdown, backup Josh Bordner ran for a score and Boston College held on for a 14-10 win over North Carolina State on Nov. 12.

Rettig completed 9-of-13 attempts for 118 yards, and Andre Williams carried 18 times for 61 yards.

Mike Glennon completed 28-of-40 passes for 220 yards and James Washington had a 3-yard TD run for the Wolfpack (5-5, 2-4), who moved deep into BC's territory in the closing minutes before Glennon's pass was tipped at the line and fell to the ground on a fourth-and-5 play with 1:10 left.

Wolfpack corner back David Amerson extended a school-record with his NCAA-leading 10th interception in the first half. NC State held BC to minus-2 yards of total offense in the second half.

Boston College linebacker Luke Kuechly had 18 tackles - nine in the final 13 minutes - for his 32nd straight game with double digits in tackles. He entered the game leading the nation with 150 after leading the nation with 183 last year.

The Eagles led 14-3 at halftime.

North Carolina State started at its own 18 with 13 1/2 minutes left in the game and marched down to the Eagles' 23 before Donnie Fletcher picked off Glennon's pass in the end zone.

Boston College took the opening kickoff and marched right down the field in five plays, grabbing a 7-0 lead when backup quarterback Bordner scored on a 3-yard run off an option play. The score came two plays after Rettig hit Alex Amidon with a 41-yard pass along the left sideline, moving the ball to the Wolfpack's nine.

NC State, coming off a shutout win over rival North Carolina last week, drove 61 yards in 13 plays on its first possession before the drive stalled and Niklas Sade kicked a 32-yard field goal. Glennon completed 7 of 8 passes for 60 yards with the only incompletion a drop by T.J. Graham.

The Wolfpack had four first downs on their first drive of the game, but only had three more until midway into the final quarter.

The Eagles improved their lead to 14-3 late in the first half on Rettig's 17-yard TD pass to Colin Larmond Jr. BC started with good field position after Wil Baumann's 24-yard punt gave them the ball at their own 41. Rettig completed consecutive passes for a combined 23 yards and Williams carried six times - mostly up the middle - for 16 yards.

Except for the final possession - which was a one-play kneel down to end the half - BC went into NC State territory each time it had the ball in the first half.

Washington's scoring run cut it to 14-10 midway into the third quarter. On a third-and-4 from the Eagles' 38, Glennon lofted a pass to tight end Quinton Payton that dropped in between four defenders.

Notre Dame, Ind. (AP) - Jonas Gray rushed for a touchdown, David Ruffer kicked three field goals and No. 24 Notre Dame recovered an onside kick with just under 2 minutes to play to hold off Boston College 16-14.

Ruffer had field goals of 40, 41 and 27 yards for the Irish (8-3), who matched their victory total from last year with their fourth straight win. But it was a costly victory, too, with Gray leaving in the third quarter with what looked to be a knee injury. Gray, who was enjoying a breakout year after a lackluster first three seasons, had extended his scoring streak to eight games with a 26-yard run on the opening drive of the game.

The Eagles struggled to get anything going offensively for most of the second half, with Chase Rettig throwing 10 incompletions in a row at one point. But Rettig got on track just in time to make things interesting, finding Chris Pantale for a 21-yard gain and throwing a 17-yarder to Rolandan Finch as the Eagles advanced to the Notre Dame 16 with about 3 minutes to play. A pass interference call on Zeke Motta moved Boston College to the 2nd and, after a false start and an incompleting, Rettig connected with Bobby Swigert for a 7-yard score.

Boston College (3-8) went for the onside kick, but Robby Toma recovered it and Notre Dame ran the clock down to just eight seconds. The Eagles got the ball back and lateraled several times before Irish linebacker Troy Niklas made the final tackle around the Boston College 15 to end the game. Notre Dame has beaten Boston College three years in a row after losing six straight.

Eagles linebacker Luke Kuechly was credited with 14 tackles, leaving him one shy of the Boston College career record. The junior did set the ACC record with 523 career tackles.

Notre Dame looked as if it was going to have an easy afternoon when it marched 80 yards on its opening drive, capped by Gray's rumble through the Boston College defense. But the Irish offense stalled twice just outside the Boston College red zone, and Tommy Rees was picked off around midfield on another drive. Rees finished 24-of-39 for 256 yards.

Cierre Wood had 98 yards for Notre Dame, giving him 1,001 for the season. Michael Floyd had 10 catches for 92 yards in his final game at Notre Dame Stadium.

Miami, Fla. (AP) - Luke Kuechly ran an interception back for a touchdown and became Boston College's all-time tackles leader, and the Eagles picked Jacory Harris off four times in his final college game en route to beating Miami 24-17.

For Miami, the biggest news wasn't the outcome in the season finale for both teams. It announced during the fourth quarter that coach Al Golden has agreed to a four-year extension through Feb. 1, 2020.

Chase Rettig threw two touchdown passes to Chris Pantale for Boston College (4-8, 3-5 Atlantic Coast Conference). Kuechly also topped his single-season ACC record for tackles, passing the mark of 183 he set last year.

Lamar Miller had a 79-yard touchdown run for Miami (6-6, 3-5), the longest carry by a Hurricane since 2000.

Harris had thrown five interceptions all season entering the day and matched a career-worst with the four on Friday.

The Eagles won their 2011 season finale, 24-17 over Miami, thanks in part to Luke Kuechly's 45-yard interception return for a touchdown.

HISTORY & RECORDS

BC FOOTBALL TIMELINE

A HISTORY OF BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

— Text by Reid Oslin, Boston College, '68

The 2012 season will be the 114th year of intercollegiate football competition for the Boston College Eagles. Here are a few of the milestones that have been reached along the way:

1891 — The Boston College student body was granted permission, but no money, by President Edward I. Devitt, S.J., to organize a football team. Joseph F. O'Donnell (1892), a Dorchester native with some previous amateur football experience, helped organize a team that played an informal schedule the following year.

1893 — Boston College began formal football competition. The team's first game was a 4-0 victory over St. John's Institute, an amateur power of the day (touchdowns were scored as four points by existing rules). BC played its first intercollegiate game on October 25, a 6-0 loss to Tech '97, an MIT class team. The first varsity game was a 10-6 victory over Boston University in the final contest of the year. Joseph C. Drum ('94) served as BC's first football coach and the team's captain was Bernie Wefers (1894), who briefly held the world record in the 100-yard dash.

1894 — The Boston College football team got its first compensated coach, William Nagle. The school adopted the team colors of maroon and gold.

1896 — Boston College and Jesuit rival Holy Cross met for the first time in a home-and-home series. Boston College won both games, by scores of 6-2 and 8-6.

1900 — College President W.G. Read Mullan, S.J., refused to allow a football team to play under the school's name. Students formed an independent team named "Boston Combination" that competed locally. Fr. Mullan relented and allowed a varsity team to be fielded the following year.

1903-1907 — In a reaction to the growing public outcry against the violence of college football, as well as for economic considerations, the sport was dropped at Boston College. U.S. President Theodore Roosevelt summoned the leaders of college football to Washington and urged that the rules of the sport be tightened. The resulting rules committee evolved into the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

1908 — Varsity football was restored at Boston College. The team practiced on the Massachusetts Avenue Grounds, the site of a former city dump. Team members mowed the grass and lined the field before practice sessions.

1913 — The college moved from its original location on James Street in Boston's South End to a new campus in Chestnut Hill. The football team's locker room and equipment storage area were located in the basement of the "Recitation Building" (renamed Gasson Hall in 1952), but coach Hiker Joy's team walked to the public park in Cleveland Circle for daily practice.

The 1893 Boston College Team

BC won its first game in 1915 on middle campus.

1915 — The original Alumni Stadium was dedicated on October 30; however, the inaugural game was won by arch-rival Holy Cross by a 9-0 score before some 5,000 fans. A week later, Boston College won its first on campus game, defeating Fordham, 3-0. The stadium was located on middle campus on the site of today's Stokes Hall.

1918 — Because of required military training for students in preparation for World War I, the football team was forced to limit practice sessions to no more than one hour per day.

1919 — A returning war hero, Frank Cavanaugh, was hired as BC's football coach. Known as "The Iron Major," Cavanaugh had been badly wounded in the Battle of San Mihiel, but recovered to launch a coaching career that would eventually lead him into the College Football Hall of Fame. In his first season at BC, he led his team to a startling 5-3 victory over heavily favored Yale — the biggest win in school history to that point. A 1943 movie, "The Iron Major" starring Pat O'Brien, chronicled Cavanaugh's life story. Part of the film was shot at the former Liggett Estate (now O'Connell House) on BC's upper campus.

1920 — The Boston College football team adopted the nickname "Eagles." The season was capped by a stirring 14-0 victory over Holy Cross before 40,000 fans at Braves Field. The win gave the team a perfect 8-0 season and the school's first "Eastern Championship."

1921 — The team's budding success drew national interest. The Eagles were invited to play Baylor in the dedication game of Dallas' Cotton Bowl stadium. The BC team, which made the 2,400-mile trip by train to play its first intersectional contest, responded with a 23-7 win over the Bears.

1926 — The final year of the Cavanaugh era produced another unbeaten season at 6-0-2. Team captain was Joe Mc-Kenney, who would return to coach the Eagles from 1928-34.

1928 — Mc-Kenney's first year as head coach was perfect — 9-0 and yielded another Eastern title. Mc-Kenney would later gain entrance into the College Football Hall of Fame as a highly respected college football official.

1936 — BC names Gilmour Dobie, another future College Hall of Fame member, as its head football coach. The Eagles' schedule is upgraded to include such national rivals as Kansas State, Kentucky, North Carolina State, Indiana and Florida, and home games are shifted to Fenway Park and Braves Field. Dobie's teams lose only six games in his three-year tenure.

1939 — On February 7, Frank Leahy is named head football coach. "I have come here to succeed and to win football games," he told alumni a few days later. He did both, as the Boston College football team won 20 of 22 games played in the ensuing two seasons. The Eagles lost only one regular-season game in the 1939 campaign (7-0 to Florida) and became the first New England team in 20 years to earn a New Year's Day bowl invitation. The Eagles met Clemson in the Cotton Bowl on January 1, but lost a close 6-3 decision to the Tigers.

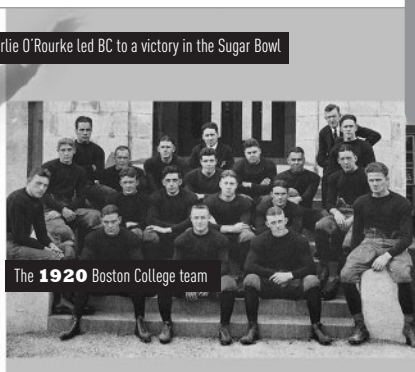

1940 — An undefeated (11-0) season, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship made this arguably the greatest season in Eagle football annals. On November 16, BC handed Georgetown its first football loss in three years when "Chuckin'" Charlie O'Rourke eluded a host of tacklers and took a safety in his own end zone as the clock expired to give the Eagles a memorable 19-18 victory. Sportswriter Grantland Rice described the contest as "the greatest game of football ever played."

BC FOOTBALL TIMELINE

1941 — On January 1, the Eagles would lay claim to the national championship with a 19-13 victory over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl. Again, O'Rourke provided the heroics, scoring on a 24-yard touchdown run with three minutes remaining in the game. Leahy had installed the game-winning play in the BC offense one day before the game. Leahy and five members of the Sugar Bowl championship team would eventually be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (HB O'Rourke, C Chet Gladchuk, E Gene Goodreault, FB Mike Holovak and G George Kerr). A crowd of 100,000 people welcomed the Sugar Bowl victors back to Boston's South Station, but Leahy would leave Boston College for Notre Dame within a month of the game.

1941 — From a field of 80 candidates, Denny Myers was named Boston College's new head football coach.

1942 — The Eagles were undefeated and ranked No. 1 in the land as they headed into the final game of the season against Holy Cross on November 28. The Crusaders pulled one of the biggest upsets in college football history that day, upsetting BC by a 55-12 score. Many BC players and fans were so bitterly disappointed that a planned "victory party" at Boston's Coconut Grove restaurant was canceled. The Coconut Grove was destroyed by fire that night, and 492 people lost their lives.

1943 — Again playing on New Year's Day, Boston College loses to Alabama in the Orange Bowl, 37-21. One bright point in the game for the Eagles was the play of Holovak, who scored all three BC touchdowns and averaged 15.8 yards every time he touched the football — an Orange Bowl record that stands to this day.

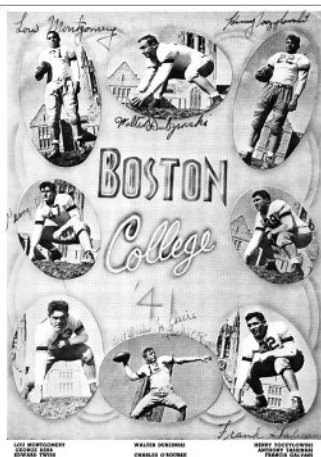

1943-1945 — A large number of Boston College players and coaches departed to serve their country in the U.S. armed forces during World War II. The teams fielded on campus found competition against service teams such as Melville PT and Squantum Naval Air Station.

1946 — Myers returned as head coach after the war and the Eagles undertook a national schedule that included LSU, Tennessee, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Michigan State and Penn State in following years. Two members of that September's freshman class — linemen Art Donovan and Ernie Stautner — would one day be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The roster also includes lineman Ed King, who, after a brief pro football career, would later be elected Governor of Massachusetts.

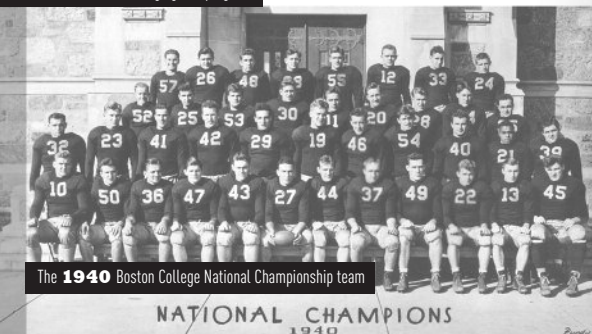

1949 — On November 26, Boston College scored its most lopsided victory ever, 76-0, over annual rival Holy Cross. BC fullback/kicker Ed Petela scored a record 34 points in the game — four touchdowns and 10 PATs.

1951 — Mike Holovak, who had played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears, returned to his alma mater as head coach. He later would be the head coach of the Boston Patriots and long-time general manager of the Houston Oilers.

1956 — After losing to Holy Cross, 7-0, on December 1, Boston College is told that football games will no longer be played at Fenway Park. The school considers dropping the sport.

1957 — On January 23, Boston College President Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J., announces the decision to build a new stadium on campus. Athletic Director William J. Flynn and former head coach Joe McKenney lead the successful $250,000 campaign to construct the new facility on the site of a filled-in reservoir on BC's lower campus. On September 26, Alumni Stadium opened with a game against Navy that had been arranged with the assistance of then-U.S. Senator John F. Kennedy. The visiting Midshipmen spoiled the day, however, with a 46-6 victory before a standing-room-only crowd of 26,000-plus. The referee in the dedication game was the legendary Albie Booth.

1964 — The Eagles knocked off highly ranked Syracuse, 21-14, on September 19 in the season opener as Larry Marzetti hit Bill Cronin with a 45-yard touchdown pass on a fourth-down play as time ran out. A freshman running back for the Orangemen that year was Tom Coughlin.

1968 — Joe Yukica took over as the Eagles' head coach. He served notice of things to come with a stunning 49-15 win at Navy in his BC coaching debut. Among the defenders for the Midshipmen in that game was end Tom O'Brien.

1970 — Fred Willis became the first running back in BC gridiron history to surpass 1,000 yards rushing (1,007) in a 10-game season.

1971 — Alumni Stadium is expanded to 32,000 seats, an artificial surface is installed and lights are added for night play.

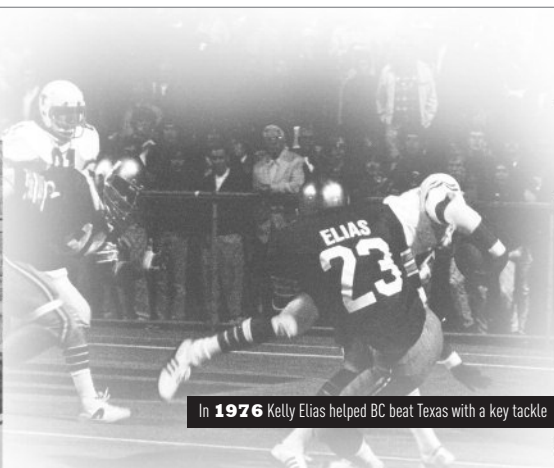

1974 — The Eagles, under Yukica and offensive backfield coach Jack Bicknell, are the hottest team in college football down the stretch, outscoring opponents by a 270-27 margin in the season's final six games. FB Keith Barnette is the nation's top scorer with 22 TDs on the season. However, the team's 8-3 record does not attract any bowl invitations to Chestnut Hill.

1975 — The Eagles open the season with an ABC-TV "Monday Night Football" appearance against Notre Dame at Schaefer Stadium in Foxboro. A record 61,000 fans filled the facility to watch the Irish take a 17-3 victory.

1976 — BC upended seventh-ranked Texas, 14-13, in a thrilling season opener at Alumni Stadium on September 11. A key tackle by Kelly Elias on a Longhorn two-point conversion try with 4:38 remaining in the game proved the difference in this victory, the biggest for a BC team in years.

1978 — The Eagles suffer their worst season in history, losing all 11 games, including a 28-24 loss to Temple in a game played in Tokyo, Japan, on December 10.

1981 — Former BC assistant Bicknell is hired as head coach. He opens the season with a 13-12 home victory over Texas A&M on September 19. Freshman Doug Flutie sees his first action — on one special teams play. Flutie would be named the team's starting quarterback by Bicknell and QB coach Tom Coughlin prior to the Navy game on October 17.

In 1976 Kelly Elias helped BC beat Texas with a key tackle

BC FOOTBALL TIMELINE

1982 — The Eagles open the season with a smashing 38-16 victory over Texas A&M in College Station. Two weeks later, BC tied defending national champion Clemson 17-17 at "Death Valley," and once again Boston College football was drawing national attention. After beating Holy Cross 35-10 in the final regular season game, the Eagles are invited to the 1982 Tangerine Bowl in Orlando to play Auburn. Fans watching that game saw two future Heisman Trophy winners: BC's Flutie and the Tigers' Bo Jackson. Auburn won the December 18 game, 33-26.

1983 — The Eagles finished the regular season with a 9-2 record, including the first ever win over Penn State (27-17 at Foxboro) and a last-minute 20-13 victory over Alabama on a rainy November night in Foxboro that is remembered as the game "that the lights went out." Fortunately, power crews restored electricity just as officials were considering stopping the game and BC went on to score on its final possession to win. The Lambert Trophy champions were matched up against Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl on December 29 — a game that was played in frigid, icy conditions. Each team scored three touchdowns in that game, but BC missed all of its extra-point tries, while the Irish converted one of three to account for the heart-breaking 19-18 final score.

1984 — Perhaps one of the most storied seasons in Boston College football history, an early highlight was the Eagles' stunning 38-31 victory over Alabama in Birmingham before a national television audience on September 8. The Eagles scored on their final possession of the game to beat the Crimson Tide — an omen of rallies to come. On November 22 at the Orange Bowl, Flutie and Boston College Football went into the storybooks as No. 22 threw a 48-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass to WR Gerard Phelan on the game's final play to give BC a memorable 47-45 victory over the Miami Hurricanes. A week later, Flutie completed one of his final college football goals by throwing a touchdown pass to his brother Darren, a freshman, in the final game of the regular season at Holy Cross on December 1. He then flew to New York City where he was presented with the Heisman Trophy later that night.

1985 — Boston College scored its first postseason victory since the 1941 Sugar Bowl with an impressive 45-28 victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. The Eagles were ranked No. 4 in the final college football poll and won the Lambert Trophy as Eastern Champions for the second consecutive year.

1985 — Appearing in the Kickoff Classic, the Eagles lost to high-powered Brigham Young, 28-14, in the college football curtain-raiser, but NG Mike Ruth chased Cougar QBs all over the field en route to eventually winning the Outland Award as college football's top lineman that season.

1986 — After thrashing Holy Cross by a 56-26 score in Worcester on November 22, the Eagles were invited to play Georgia in Tampa's Hall of Fame Bowl on December 23. There, QB Shawn Halloran hit WR Kelvin Martin with a 5-yard scoring pass with just 32 seconds left in the game to give BC a 27-24 victory. Two months later, Holy Cross abruptly canceled the BC-HC rivalry that had begun in 1896.

1988 — A rebuilt Alumni Stadium with matching upper decks and state-of-the-art press facilities is dedicated in a nationally televised game against Southern Cal. On November 19, Boston College and Army made sports history by playing the first American college football game in Europe. The Eagles topped the Cadets 38-24 in that contest, played at Dublin's Lansdowne Road Stadium.

In 1985 the Eagles win the Cotton Bowl

Alumni Stadium in 1988

In 1984 Doug Flutie wins the Heisman Trophy

1991 — Former assistant coach Tom Coughlin, is hired away from the Super Bowl Champion New York Giants as BC's newest head football coach. BC plays the first-ever BIG EAST Football Conference game at Rutgers on August 31, the coach's 45th birthday.

1992 — BC scores three consecutive shutout victories (vs. Northwestern, Navy and Michigan State) on the way to an 8-2-1 regular season and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl against Tennessee. The Vols won the Sugar Bowl "rematch" by a 38-23 score.

1993 — The Eagles bounced back from losses in the first two games of the year to reel off eight consecutive victories and earn another postseason invitation. Highlighting this drive was a magnificent 41-39 victory at Notre Dame on November 20, when David Gordon kicked a 41-yard field goal with no time remaining to shock the No. 1-ranked Irish. The Eagles' final 8-3 showing earned them a slot in the Carquest Bowl in Fort Lauderdale where they convincingly beat ACC representative Virginia, 31-13, on New Year's Day.

1994 — Alumni Stadium was expanded to its current capacity of 44,500 and was completely refurbished. Unfortunately, as had happened on three previous occasions, the Eagles lost the dedication game, this time, 12-7, to Virginia Tech on September 17. BC made up for the loss, however, by scoring an impressive 30-11 victory over Notre Dame in Chestnut Hill on October 8 — the Eagles' first win in their new lair. BC went on to cap the season with a Christmas Day appearance in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu where the Eagle defense led the way to a 12-7 victory over Kansas State.

1995 — Boston College was again invited to participate in the Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands, but fared no better than in their 1985 appearance and lost to Ohio State by a 38-6 count. All 12 of the Eagles' games were on network television this year.

1996 — Tom O'Brien was named head coach at Boston College on December 13.

1997 — O'Brien recorded his first victory as a head coach on September 13 as BC beat West Virginia, 31-24. It was the first time the Eagles had defeated the Mountaineers in Chestnut Hill since 1976.

1998 — Mike Cloud rushed for a BIG EAST and BC single-season record 1,726 yards to become Boston College's all-time leading rusher with 3,597 yards. He became a consensus first-team All-America selection and a finalist for the Doak Walker National Running Back of the Year Award. The Kansas City Chiefs selected him in the second round of the NFL Draft.

1999 — Boston College engineered the third-best turnaround in major college football by finishing the regular season with an 8-3 record and ranked 22nd nationally. BC received an invitation to play in the Insight.com Bowl, its first postseason appearance since 1994.

2000 — Boston College makes its second straight trip to a bowl game as the Eagles defeat Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the Aloha Bowl. William Green becomes the third-straight Eagles back to rush for 1,000 yards or more in a season and offensive tackle Paul Zukauskas earns first team All-America honors and is later picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

In 1998 Mike Cloud became Boston College's all-time leading rusher

Matt Hasselbeck was a two-year starter for BC in the 1990s

The 1991 Tom Coughlin in named BC's new head football coach

BC FOOTBALL TIMELINE

2001 — The Eagles post an 8-4 record and earn back-to-back bowl game wins with an impressive 20-16 win over Georgia in the Music City Bowl. William Green rushes for 1,559 yards and earns first-team All-America honors. Green (16th, Cleveland) and OT Marc Colombo (29th, Chicago) are selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

2002 — BC's 51-25 win over Toledo in the Motor City Bowl, an unprecedented third consecutive bowl victory, sent the 2002 senior class out with 32 victories in four years (32-17), tied with the 1981-84 group for the most wins in a four year period in 60 years of Boston College football. One of the top highlights of the season occurred on November 2, when the Eagles marched into Notre Dame Stadium and defeated the previously undefeated, fourth-ranked and green-clad Fighting Irish, 14-7, to end ND's dreams of a national championship.

2003 — On October 12, 2003, BC President William P. Leahy, SJ and Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo hold a press conference to announce that Boston College would accept an offer to become the 12th member of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The 2003 Eagles notched impressive victories over Notre Dame, No. 25 Penn State and No. 12 Virginia Tech en route to winning their 40th game in five seasons, tying an all-time school record. On New Year's Eve, the Eagles appeared in a school-record fifth consecutive bowl game at the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl. Their 35-21 victory over Colorado State made the Eagles the first team in BC football history to win seven or more games for five consecutive seasons and the only team in college football to have won a bowl game the past four years in a row. Senior running back Derrick Knight became BC's all-time rushing leader, finishing his career with 3,725 yards.

2004 — The Eagles rolled to another 9-3 season, winning a share of the BIG East Conference championship and missing a Fiesta Bowl bid only by a loss to Syracuse on the final day of the 2004 campaign. Senior QB Paul Peterson, who engineered a thrilling 24-23 victory at Notre Dame with a last-minute 30-yard touchdown pass to Tony Gonzalez setting up the stunning victory. Peterson was injured two weeks later in a win against Temple, but the Utah native returned to the lineup to lead the Eagles to a 37-24 victory over future ACC rival North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl in Charlotte.

2005 — After season-opening victories at Brigham Young and Army, Boston College played its first-ever Atlantic Coast Conference game - a nationally-televised contest against Florida State on September 21. ESPN's "Game Day" crew was on hand to broadcast from campus prior to the much-anticipated ACC match-up. The Eagles lost to Bobby Bowden's powerful Seminoles 28-17 in their league debut, but introduced themselves as a force to be reckoned with in the ACC with a 16-13 overtime victory at Clemson a week later. BC finished with another impressive 9-3 record and went on to play Boise State in the Humanitarian Bowl where they handed the host Broncos a rare defeat -27-21 - on their home "Blue Turf."

2006 — Another successful year for BC Football, as the team finished with a 10-3 record, including a pair of double-overtime victories over Clemson (34-33) and Brigham Young (30-23) on back-to-back September Saturdays. The big news of the year, however, came in December as Coach Tom O'Brien left Chestnut Hill to become head coach at ACC rival North Carolina State. Defensive coordinator Frank Spaziani took over leadership of the team for the Meineke Care Bowl against Navy in Charlotte and recorded his first head coaching victory as linebacker Jolann Dunbar recovered a Midshipman fumble late in the game and QB Matt Ryan led the Eagles back into scoring range where kicker Steve Aponavicius booted a 37-yard field goal to give BC a narrow 25-24 victory.

In 2001 William Green rushed for 1,559 yards

The Eagles played their first ACC game in 2005

Mathias Kiwanuka finished his BC career in 2005 with 37.5 sacks all-time, a record he still holds.

2007 – With new coach Jeff Jagodzinski – a former BC offensive line coach and NFL assistant – at the helm, the new-look Eagles rolled off eight straight victories to start the year – the best of them a stunning 14-10 win at Virginia Tech that featured two Matt Ryan touchdown passes in the game's final 2:11 – the game-winner a 24-yard scoring strike to RB Andre Callender with just seconds to play. The victory propelled BC to the No. 2 slot in the national rankings and helped them finish the regular season with a 10-2 mark, earning a spot in the ACC Championship game in Jacksonville vs. Virginia Tech. The Eagles lost to the Hokies, 30-16, in the title game, but bounced back to trim Michigan State, 24-21, in Orlando's Citrus Bowl, giving the team an 11-victory season, the most wins at Chestnut Hill since the legendary Sugar Bowl Champions of 1940.

2008 – As All-America QB Matt Ryan departed for the NFL (he was the first round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons), the Eagles regrouped quickly to post another 9-3 regular season that included a 17-0 shutout of Notre Dame – the Eagles' sixth consecutive win over the Irish. BC again won the ACC Atlantic Division crown and advanced to the league's title game again where Virginia Tech won a second straight championship at BC's expense. After losing to Vanderbilt, 16-14 in Nashville's Music City Bowl, Jagodzinski looked into NFL job possibilities and departed Chestnut Hill.

2009 – Long-time BC defensive assistant Frank Spaziani became the school's 34th head football coach, inheriting a team that was picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division. He led the team to an 8-5 record, earning a spot in San Francisco's Emerald Bowl against Southern California.

2010 – The defensively-powerful Eagles qualified for a school-record 12th consecutive post-season bowl game, returning to San Francisco to meet Nevada in the re-named Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

2011 – For the first time in more than a decade, the Eagles slipped below .500 on the season and missed out on post-season play, but BC showed plenty of promise for the future by winning three ACC games – Maryland, North Carolina and Miami – down the home stretch. The season spotlight belonged to two-time All-America LB Luke Kuechly who made a "clean sweep" of national defensive honors, including ACC Defensive Player of the Year, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Butkus Award, the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Lott Impact Trophy after leading all collegiate football players in tackles (191) and solo tackles (102) during the 2011 campaign. Kuechly entered the NFL Draft after his junior season and was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round.

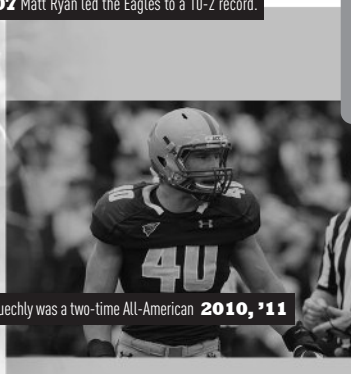

Note: Reid Oslin was Sports Information Director at Boston College from 1974 until the end of the 1997 football season. He is author of two books on the history of Boston College Football.

Anthony Castonzo was a first-round NFL draft pick of Indianapolis in 2011

In 2007 Matt Ryan led the Eagles to a 10-2 record.

LB Luke Kuechly was a two-time All-American 2010, '11

BOWL GAME HISTORY

COTTON BOWL

January 1, 1940 • Dallas, Texas
Clemson 6, Boston College 3

Frank Leahy came to Boston College in 1939, succeeding the immortal Gil Dobie, and immediately declared, "I did not come to BC to fail." Nor did the 29-year old protégé of Knute Rockne, who had tutored Fordham's mighty Seven Blocks of Granite.

His team was ranked 11th nationally when it faced Clemson in the Cotton Bowl — the first New England team to participate in a bowl game in 20 years. The Eagles took a 3-0 lead on Alex Lukachik's 36-yard field goal, but Clemson roared right back on its next possession, and Charley Timmons ran for a score.

That was it for the day. Banks McFadden knocked down three Charley O'Rourke passes in the end zone in the fourth quarter, and BC drove to the Clemson 8-yard line late in the game but failed to score.

Scoring Summary

Clemson	0	6	0	0	—	6
Boston College	0	3	0	0	—	3

Second Quarter

BC — 36 FG Alex LUKACHIK. Drive: 4 plays, 0 yards. Score: Boston College 3, Clemson 0.

CU — Charley TIMMONS 1 run (Shad Bryant kick failed). Drive: 9 plays, 57 yards. Score: Clemson 6, Boston College 3.

SUGAR BOWL

January 1, 1941 • New Orleans, La.
Boston College 19, Tennessee 13

In Leahy's second year, the Eagles went unbeaten in 11 games and finished with their highest national ranking ever, thanks to a gritty come-from-behind 19-13 win over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl. The Volunteers, who had not lost a regular season game in three years, led 7-0 at the half, but Joe Zabliski's recovery of a blocked punt set up Harry Connolly's game-tying touchdown and extra point in the third quarter.

Tennessee came back to take a 13-7 lead, but Mike Holovak ended a 60-yard drive when he scored BC's second touchdown. However, Leahy elected to run Holovak for the extra point which was stopped. The score remained tied, 13-13.

Don Currivan blocked a Tennessee field goal in the fourth quarter and started BC on its winning drive.

Scoring Summary

Tennessee	7	0	6	0	—	13

ORANGE BOWL

January 1, 1943 • Miami, Fla.
Alabama 37, Boston College 21

This contest was a wild affair, as Boston College took a 14-0 lead on two of Mike Holovak's three touchdowns on the day. Holovak's first touchdown came on a 65-yard run and his second on a 35-yard sweep.

After Alabama fought back and took a 19-14 lead, Holovak scored his third touchdown of the day on a two-yard plunge. Harry Connolly's extra-point gave the Eagles a 21-19 lead. By this time, injuries had begun to pile up for BC (Mario Gianelli, one of the team's best linemen, broke his toe getting dressed for the game and never played), and Alabama took the lead for good on a field goal. The Tide soon took a 28-21 advantage and the Eagles missed their tying chance when they were unable to score from the 8-yard line in the fourth quarter.

Scoring Summary

Alabama	0	22	6	9	—	37
Boston College	14	7	0	0	—	21

TANGERINE BOWL

December 18, 1982 • Orlando, Fla.
Auburn 33, Boston College 26

Eagle quarterback Doug Flutie put on a dazzling performance, completing 22-of-38 passes for 299 yards and two touchdowns (he also scored on a 5-yard run and accounted for a pair of two-point-conversions), but the Eagles' furious second-half rally fell just short of victory. The Eagles scored on the first drive of the game and then played tremendous defense, stopping the nationally ranked Auburn Tigers twice on drives inside their own 5-yard line without surrendering a touchdown. The Tigers used their blinding outside speed to score three second-quarter touchdowns and increased their lead to 33-10 by the end of the third.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

LIBERTY BOWL

December 29, 1983 • Memphis, Tenn.

Notre Dame 19, Boston College 18

Despite bitter 11-degree temperatures, Doug Flutie shined once again in postseason action, completing 16 of 37 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. The Fighting Irish, however, also tallied three TDs and emerged a one-point victor.

Scott Gieselmann grabbed a 3-yard touchdown flip from Flutie midway through the third quarter, but the contest was a dead-locked defensive struggle for the remainder of the evening. With 1:08 left on a fourth-down situation on Notre Dame's 35, Flutie's toss intended for Joe Giaquinto up the middle fell incomplete.

Tailback Troy Stradford was the Eagles leading ground gainer with 51 yards on 16 carries. Flutie, however, was named the game's Most Valuable Player for his aerial efforts.

COTTON BOWL

January 1, 1985 • Dallas, Texas

Boston College 45, Houston 28

Four months to the day after the memorable 1984 season began, it ended with the Eagles' first postseason Bowl victory in 44 years. Before 56,522 (67,381 paid) at the frigid Cotton Bowl (32 windy, drizzly degrees) and another CBS-TV national audience, Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie (13 for 37, 180 yards) threw two scoring passes in the first quarter to boost BC to a 17-7 lead. Kelvin Martin's 63-yard touchdown grab to open the scoring was the longest aerial connection of the year for the Eagles. Flutie would add his Cotton Bowl-record third touchdown pass later in the contest.

Houston trimmed two touchdowns off BC's 31-14 halftime lead before the Eagle ground game asserted itself.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

December 23, 1986 • Tampa, Fla.

Boston College 27, Georgia 24

Eagle quarterback Shawn Halloran connected with wide receiver Kelvin Martin on a 5-yard touchdown pass with just 32 seconds remaining in the game to give Boston College a thrilling 27-24 victory over the Georgia Bulldogs in the first Hall of Fame Bowl game in Tampa, FL.

The perfectly timed touchdown toss capped a sparkling 76-yard drive that began with just 2:38 left on the clock and Georgia holding a 24-20 edge.

The Eagles started the game in high gear, with Halloran picking apart the Bulldogs' defense for 22 completions in his first 31 attempts — good for 242 yards, a touchdown and a 20-7 lead at intermission. Georgia roared back in the second half, however, outscoring the Eagles 17-0 until BC's magical final drive.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

January 1, 1993 • Tampa, Fla.

Tennessee 38, Boston College 23

The Eagles' first bowl appearance in six years fell short of being a success as a 17-point scoring blitz by Tennessee in the third quarter broke open a close game and gave the speedy Volunteers a lead that could not be matched. BC had some outstanding performances from tight end Pete Mitchell, who set a Hall of Fame Bowl receiving record with nine catches for 100 yards (and a pair of scores), and from quarterback Glenn Foley, who clicked on 23-of-46 passes for 268 yards and threw a pair of two-point conversions in addition to the two TD passes to Mitchell.

BC rallied in the final quarter with Foley's 17-yard TD pass to Mitchell and Darnell Campbell's 7-yard scoring dash, each of which was followed by a successful two-point conversion play, but the clock ran out on BC's strong closing effort.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

CARQUEST BOWL

January 1, 1994 • Miami, Fla.
Boston College 31, Virginia 13

Glenn Foley put on another masterful passing show in leading the Eagles to the Carquest Bowl championship before a CBS national television audience. The Virginia Cavaliers gave BC an early scare, picking off Foley's second pass of the game and converting it into a touchdown and a 7-0 advantage just 1:05 into the game.

But Foley would make few mistakes in the ensuing 58 minutes and 55 seconds of play. In this, his final collegiate appearance, Foley would go on to set eight Blockbuster/Carquest Bowl records, passing for 391 yards and three touchdowns and earning himself the game's Most Valuable Player award.

Overall, the Eagle offense was splendid. When the game ended, BC had gained a whopping 557 yards — nearly seven yards per play.

JEEP ALOHA BOWL

December 25, 1994 • Honolulu, Hawaii
Boston College 12, Kansas State 7

In a spectacular defensive effort, the Eagles stopped eighth-ranked Kansas State cold — completely erasing the Wildcats' ground attack (minus 61 yards on the day) and sacking quarterback Chad May eight times. The Kansas State offense could not manage a touchdown in the game; the Wildcats' only points came on a blocked punt, which was recovered in the end zone.

Kansas State scored on the blocked punt on the last play of the first quarter, and both defenses duelled in front of an ABC-TV national audience before the Eagles were able to muster another long drive in the fourth period that culminated in David Gordon's 35-yard field goal with 1:18 left. The key play of that successful late drive was a 46-yard pass from Mark Hartsell to wide receiver Kenya Watson.

INSIGHT.COM BOWL

December 31, 1999 • Tucson, Ariz.
Colorado 62, Boston College 28

Colorado began the game with a 65-yard drive that resulted in the first touchdown. The Eagles returned the favor with a drive of their own, but John Match missed a field goal and Colorado took over again. The Buffaloes charged down the field, scoring another touchdown. The Buffaloes would score again before the first quarter ended. The Eagles showed they would not give up when George White intercepted a pass from CU quarterback Mike Moschetti and returned it 78 yards for the Eagles' first touchdown of the game. With 7:22 left in the first half, the Eagles trailed by a score of 35-7. The half came to a close, however, with Colorado ahead 45-7.

The third quarter offered much the same, with Tim Hasselbeck and St. Pierre combining to complete only nine of 28 passes. By the end of the day, Colorado took a convincing 62-28 win back to Boulder.

December 25, 2000 • Honolulu, Hawaii
Boston College 31, Arizona State 17

Boston College put on a second-half offensive explosion to defeat Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the 2000 Jeep Aloha Bowl. Though Arizona State jumped on the board first, BC was quick to respond with 10 straight points for a 10-7 lead after one quarter. Senior running back Cedric Washington marched into the end zone just 1:07 after the ASU score on a 10-yard run.

Leading 24-10 to start the fourth quarter, senior linebacker Ryan Burch intercepted a pass attempt by Griffin Goodman. Washington took over, and after four rushes that gained 28 yards, he ran the final 10 yards into the end zone for the Eagles' final score of the day and a 31-10 lead. ASU added a late score.

Boston College accumulated 180 yards on the ground, including a final 100-yard rushing game (109 yards) for Washington.

MUSIC CITY BOWL

December 28, 2001 • Nashville, Tenn.
Boston College 20, Georgia 16

Boston College snapped its 22-game losing streak to ranked teams with a thrilling 20-16 victory over No. 16 Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl. Consensus All-America tailback William Green rushed for 149 yards, including a seven-yard, game-winning touchdown with 4:43 remaining in the game, to lead the Eagles to consecutive wins in a postseason bowl game.

Although the Eagles were outgained, 410 yards to 306 yards, the team did benefit from two UGA interceptions, two UGA fumbles and two first downs resulting from UGA penalties. Brian St. Pierre finished with 109 yards and one touchdown on nine completions. Green led all rushers with 149 yards and one touchdown, rushing for his 10th 100-yard game of the season. Fred Gibson was the game's leading receiver with 109 yards on six receptions.

MOTOR CITY BOWL

December 26, 2002 • Detroit, Mich.
Boston College 51, Toledo 25

Boston College won a bowl game for an unprecedented third year in a row as the Eagles thumped Toledo, 51-25, in the Motor City Bowl in Detroit. Senior quarterback Brian St. Pierre saved his best for last, completing 25-of-35 passes for a career-high 342 yards and three touchdowns as the Eagles capped one of the most successful seasons in their football history. The game was never close as the Eagles scored touchdowns on their first six possessions. BC took the opening kickoff on its own 24 and marched 76 yards in 10 plays behind the rushing of Derrick Knight, who finished the day with 19 carries for 65 yards and one touchdown.

After Toledo pulled to within 14-3, the Eagles mounted another impressive drive, culminating in a St. Pierre touchdown pass to another talented sophomore wide receiver, a 40-yarder to Joel Hazard that made the score 21-3. The Rockets could get no closer the rest of the day.

SAN FRANCISCO BOWL

December 31, 2003 • San Francisco, Calif.
Boston College 35, Colorado State 21

Boston College celebrated New Year's Eve in the City by the Bay by winning its fourth consecutive bowl game, a 35-21 victory over Colorado State in the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl.

The Eagles scored early and often, taking a commanding 21-0 first-quarter lead. Will Blackmon started the game on a high note, returning the opening kickoff to the Colorado State 41. All-time rushing leader Derrick Knight dominated the opening drive and scored from the five to give the Eagles a 7-0 lead with 12:14 left. A 40-yard Van Pelt scoring pass with seven minutes remaining in the third trimmed BC's lead to 21-14, but a Stancil interception led to a Peterson-to-Lester 19-yard TD pass to give the Eagles some breathing room and a 28-14 lead.

After an unsuccessful fourth down play for Colorado State, Knight iced the win, marching 28 yards to the end zone.

CONTINENTAL TIRE BOWL

December 30, 2004 • Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, North Carolina 24

In his first game back from a broken finger, senior quarterback Paul Peterson threw for 236 yards as the Eagles won a fifth straight bowl game, beating North Carolina 37-24 in the Continental Tire Bowl. Redshirt freshman Andre Callender carried the ball 26 times for 174 yards and a touchdown in a balanced offensive effort. UNC opened the third with a Connor Barth field goal to take a 24-21 lead. As the third quarter came to an end, however, Callender gained 38 yards to the UNC 10, setting up a 1-yard touchdown plunge three plays later that gave BC a 27-24 lead.

The Eagle defense forced a punt on UNC's next drive and BC took over with good field position. On fourth down at the UNC 21, Ohliger faded the field goal and ran for the score, avoiding would-be Tar Heel tacklers on the way and stunning the crowd as the Eagles took a 34-24 lead. BC's final points came when William Troost hit an 18-yard field goal with 4:09 left.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

MPC COMPUTERS BOWL

December 28, 2005 • Boise, Idaho
Boston College 27, Boise State 21

Ryan Glasper intercepted a Jared Zabransky pass in the end zone with 37 seconds left to lift Boston College past Boise State 27-21 in the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl.

Playing before a hostile crowd and on the blue turf of home-standing Boise State, the Eagles stunned the Broncos by scoring the first 27 points of the game as quarterback Matt Ryan connected on three touchdown passes, including two to Tony Gonzalez in the first half. Ryan completed 19-of-36 passes for 256 yards, 144 of them going to senior Will Blackmon.

Ryan got the Eagles on the board 3:29 into the first half when he found Gonzalez for a 24-yard touchdown pass. Following a Ryan Ohlinger 30-yard field goal, BC linebacker Jolonn Dunbar caused a fumble that was picked up by Ray Henderson and taken to the Broncos 13 yard-line. Ryan then hooked up with Gonzalez on a 13-yard strike to give the Eagles a 17-0 lead.

MEINEKE CAR CARE BOWL

December 30, 2006 • Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 25, Navy 24

Interim Head Coach Frank Spaziani etched his name into the BC record books as the only undefeated coach in school history when he led the Eagles to a 25-24, come-from-behind victory over Navy in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. Spaziani was given the interim title after Tom O'Brien departed for N.C. State and he led the Eagles through their bowl game preparations. Junior quarterback Matt Ryan was named the game's most valuable player after he completed 20-of-29 passes for 242 yards and one touchdown.

With Navy trying to kill the clock with less than two minutes remaining, Dunbar recovered a Reggie Campbell fumble at the Midshipmen 36. Ryan completed a 15-yard pass to Purvis to get the Eagles within field goal range. Kicker Steve Aponavicius connected from 37 yards as time expired and, almost miraculously, the Eagles had won yet another bowl game.

CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL

December 28, 2007 • Orlando, Fla.
Boston College 24, Michigan State 21

Quarterback Matt Ryan ended a brilliant career in style by leading the Eagles to an 11th victory for only the second time in school history as BC defeated Michigan State, 24-21, in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando.

Ryan completed 22-of-47 passes for 249 yards and three touchdowns as the Eagles kept the nation's longest bowl game winning streak alive with their eighth straight bowl win. The win also propelled the team to a No. 10 finish in the final AP college football poll of the season, BC's first top 10 finish since the 1984 season. Michigan State had an opportunity to pull the upset, taking over with 2:37 left in the game. But on first down, BC's Paul Anderson intercepted a Hoyer pass and returned it to the MSU 29, allowing the Eagles to run out the clock.

Scoring Summary

MUSIC CITY BOWL

December 31, 2008 • Nashville, Tenn.
Vanderbilt 16, Boston College 14

Vanderbilt won a bowl game for the first time in exactly 53 years when Bryant Hahnfeldt kicked a 45-yard field goal with 3:26 left to beat Boston College 16-14 in the Music City Bowl.

Vanderbilt hadn't even played in a bowl since 1982 and the win gave the Commodores (7-6) their first winning season since then, too.

Boston College (9-5) snapped the nation's longest bowl winning streak after eight straight games in its 10th consecutive bowl appearance. The Eagles also missed a chance at finishing with at least 10 wins for a third straight season.

BOWL GAME HISTORY

EMERALD BOWL

December 26, 2009 • San Francisco, Calif.
USC 24, Boston College 13

Matt Barkley threw touchdown passes to Stanley Havili on Southern California's first two possessions and added a touchdown run in the fourth quarter to help the Trojans beat Boston College 24-13 in the Emerald Bowl.

Damian Williams caught 12 passes for 189 yards, setting up Havili's second score and Barkley's 1-yard sneak that gave USC a 24-13 lead with 11:53 remaining.

The Eagles stayed close with the Trojans for most of the game before Dave Shinskie threw an interception to Shareece Wright early in the fourth quarter. On the next play, Barkley connected on a 48-yard pass to Williams. Barkley scored on the next play.

Scoring Summary

Boston College	0	13	0	0	—	13

KRAFT FIGHT HUNGER BOWL

January 9, 2011 • San Francisco, Calif.
Nevada 20, Boston College 13

Rishard Matthews caught a touchdown pass and returned a punt for another score, and No. 13 Nevada used its best defensive game of the season to beat Boston College 20-13.

Colin Kaepernick threw for 192 yards and a touchdown for the Wolf Pack (13-1), who snapped a four-game bowl losing streak by tying a school record for wins in a season, set when it played in what used to be Division I-AA.

The win was sealed by Khalid Wooten's interception on the final drive of the game for the Eagles (7-6).

The game matched BC's top-ranked rushing defense against Nevada's high-powered pistol attack that was third in the nation in rushing. The defense won that battle, holding the Wolf Pack to a season-low 114 yards on the ground, including just 22 for Kaepernick.

Freshman Chase Rettig completed 14 of 34 passes for 121 yards and two interceptions. Boston College played without leading rusher Montel Harris, who got hurt in pre-game warmups.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

FLUTIE AND RUTH

22 Doug Flutie

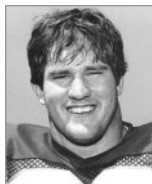

Never again will a Boston College football player wear the number 22 or 68. Those two retired numbers belonged to quarterback Doug Flutie and nose tackle Mike Ruth, respectively.

Flutie won the 1984 Heisman Trophy, given annually by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the outstanding college football player in the nation, and the Walter Camp Award, given by the Walter Camp Football Foundation of New Haven, Conn., to the nation's most outstanding player.

Ruth was the winner of the 1985 Outland Trophy, given to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America.

These two numbers were retired in a ceremony on Oct. 8, 1998, as the Eagles played Virginia Tech.

Mike Ruth 68

Seven other former Boston College football players have received the honor of having their jerseys retired — Art Donovan, Bill Flynn, Gene Goodreault, Mike Holovak, Charles O'Rourke, Tony Thurman and Louis Urban.

Holovak, O'Rourke, Thurman and Urban were honored in ceremonies on September 12, 1998, as the Eagles beat Rutgers.

A four-year letterwinner at end and team captain in 1923, Urban played on Boston College teams that compiled an overall record of 25-7, including the 1920 team that went 8-0 and gave the school its first "Eastern Championship." He was a consensus first-team all-America selection in that season.

O'Rourke's Boston College teams compiled a cumulative record of 26-3-2. "Chuckin' Charlie" helped lead the Eagles to an 11-0 record in 1940, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

Holovak's Boston College teams finished 26-5 and he is known as one of the top running backs in school history. He scored all three Eagle touchdowns in the 1943 Orange Bowl and averaged 15.8 yards per carry in that contest against Alabama. A consensus first-team all-American in 1942, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

Thurman was a consensus first team all-America pick in 1984 as a defensive back and still holds the school career records for interceptions in a game (3), season (12) and career (25).

Flynn, who was honored in ceremonies at 1999's Miami game, was associated with Boston College athletics for nearly seven decades as a student-athlete, faculty member, coach and director of athletics. He played football at Boston College from 1936-38, serving as team captain in '38. He also played hockey and became the first Boston College player to score 20 goals in a season. Flynn returned to the University in 1945 as a mathematics teacher and assistant football coach and seven years later became the Alumni Association executive secretary. Flynn was the director of athletics for the Eagles from 1957 to 1990 and during his tenure, Boston College expanded its varsity sports programs and constructed most of its major athletic facilities.

Donovan, who was honored at 1999's Pittsburgh game, was a four-year letterman for the Eagles from 1946-49 and was an outstanding lineman for his teams that went a combined 20-13-3. In the professional ranks, he played on two world championship teams in 12 seasons as a perennial all-pro selection at defensive tackle for the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 1968.

Goodreault, who was honored at 2001's Pittsburgh game at Alumni Stadium, was a member of the Boston College football team that won the 1941 Sugar Bowl. He lettered for the Eagles from 1938 to 1940 as an end and was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1940, including a spot on the Walter Camp All-America team.

DOUG FLUTIE

Doug Flutie is the quintessential football performer. Between the 1981 and 1984 college football seasons, he produced a major college career record of 11,054 yards of total offense (10,579 of them from passing, another national career record).

He first appeared on the collegiate scene in the fall of 1981 starting in the fourth game of his freshman year in an already-lost game at Penn State. He raked Joe Paterno's defense for 135 passing yards and a touchdown and won the starting job with that performance.

He went on to post a 30-11-1 overall record as a starter while also leading BC to three postseason bowls, the school's first post-season play in 40 years. He was the game MVP of the Tangerine Bowl in his sophomore year against Auburn and the Liberty Bowl in his junior year vs. Notre Dame.

Flutie's last-chance, game-winning drives were the stuff of Hollywood screenwriters. As long as there was time on the clock,

Flutie always believed that it was possible to win.

And in those rare instances when it didn't happen, it was only because he had run out of time — not out of opportunity.

The best thing about watching Flutie in a game was wondering what astounding feat he would perform that day. Those feats weren't always game-winning plays, but often a series of individual plays within a game that, when totaled, made victory possible.

No obstacle on the field ever seemed too great to overcome.

While gifted with great mobility and an uncanny talent to "photograph" an opposing defense and then pick it apart at his whim, perhaps his greatest talent was an innate sense of how to win — an asset that never was coached into him.

When he wasn't rolling up prodigious amounts of passing yards, Flutie tantalized his foes with his scrambling and finished his career with more than 700 rushing yards.

Then, there was the size factor — "Little Doug" playing in a land of giants. Of course, "Little Doug" was just as tall as the average American male, about 5-10. Perception soon became reality and a "little" man, real or imagined, wasn't supposed to accomplish what he did on a football field.

As a sophomore, he engineered a memorable tie against defending national champion Clemson. After the nationally televised game, CBS commentator Pat Haden, himself a smallish quarterback who succeeded at USC, sought him out and told him, "Don't ever let anyone tell you that you are too small to play this game."

Yet, he also was a man of the people. He went to class with other students; he ate on the same meal plan they used; he played pick-up basketball games in the gym with them; and he never sought an exalted place in either his campus or personal life.

He thrived in his family setting away from the adulation, glitz and glitter of his fame. One of the happiest moments of a momentous senior year was playing with his younger brother Darren, then a freshman wide receiver.

Oddly enough, Flutie eschewed scholarship offers from Holy Cross and Syracuse, who wanted to make him a defensive back despite his fine performances at quarterback for Natick High School, in Boston's Metro-west suburbs.

But Boston College got him with an assurance by new head coach Jack Bicknell that he would be given a full shot.

In 1983, he was key in the Eagles' upset victory over Alabama and another last-second win against Temple. His team lost to Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl, but he was named game MVP.

All of that simply set the table for his amazing senior season in 1984. He threw six touchdown passes in a 52-20 romp over North Carolina; got four in an opening-game victory over Western Carolina; and three each against Rutgers, Army and Holy Cross; and of course, his fabled, last-play touchdown pass to Gerard Phelan to beat Miami stood above all else.

In 1984, Doug Flutie became the first player in Boston College history to win college football's grandest individual award — the Heisman Trophy.

It capped an unbelievable 9-2 season that included the astounding victory over Miami, a victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl and a No. 5 national ranking.

He was the single-most exciting and resourceful player in college football that season. In addition to being named the starting quarterback on every major 1984 all-America team and winning the Heisman, he also won the Maxwell Award, given to the nation's outstanding college football player; the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award; and numerous player of the year awards.

As icing on the cake, Flutie headlined the 2007 College Football Hall of Fame class. Flutie was selected in his first year of eligibility and was inducted at the 50th Annual Awards Dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. He was officially enshrined at the Hall in South Bend, Ind., during ceremonies in the summer of 2008.

Though his team had a losing record, Ruth was honored in 1985, the only time a player from a non-winning team has been recognized.

At 6-1 and 265 pounds, he not only was the team's strongest player — he had a record 560-pound bench press as a junior — but he also was the quickest lineman.

He mauled the offensive linemen who tried to block him, often tossing them aside like rag dolls; or he fooled them with his cat-like quickness that helped him elude double teams by centers and guards until it was almost monotonous to watch.

The combination of his strength and quickness helped him accumulate a couple dozen sacks and nearly 300 tackles during his career.

Injuries once more dogged him as a senior but not enough that he didn't excel on a team that won only four of 12 games.

Ruth had built a tremendous reputation during his junior season and really secured the Outland Trophy in the 1985 season's first game, the Kickoff Classic against Brigham Young University at Giants Stadium in New Jersey.

RUTH'S BC CAREER

Mike Ruth is the only Boston College player to win the Outland Trophy, presented to the nation's best interior offensive or defensive lineman.

He relentlessly harassed BYU's quarterbacks the entire game, convincing the trophy's voters that he still was the country's best interior lineman. His play for the rest of the season did nothing to diminish that impression.

Ruth showed as a freshman during the 1982 season that he would be special when, playing a backup role, he accumulated 36 tackles and three quarterback sacks.

Though dogged by a season-long ankle injury as a sophomore in 1983, he more than doubled his tackles to 80 and had 7.5 sacks.

In 1984, as the key to the Eagles defensive strength, Ruth had 102 tackles, 76 of them solo. He had 6.5 sacks, but also was credited with 20 quarterback pressures and seven other minus-yard plays. In the 1984 game against Holy Cross, he pressured the Crusader quarterback into throwing five interceptions.

Away from the field, he was just as unique.

For most of his time at BC, he seriously considered a vocation to the priesthood. He was a very value-oriented person who practiced what he preached. Often, the night before a game, the team would watch a movie he found objectionable and he simply sat outside the meeting room where it was being shown, and studied.

When his teammates emerged, he rejoined them for the team's late-night snack and everything was very comfortable for all concerned.

His mother was a victim of severe arthritis, so bad that at times she could not walk down the aisle in his family's parish church outside Philadelphia. No matter, Mike simply picked her up in his massive arms and carried her to her pew; and when it came time for her to receive Holy Communion, he carried her to the altar and back again.

He was team captain in 1985, his Outland Trophy year, but his leadership, even in a losing season, remained true to his personality. He told everyone before that season that he was not a holler guy, that his leadership would be by example. He never wavered and played as intensely as he had the previous seasons.

Ruth came to BC from Norristown, Pa., where he graduated from Methacton High School. He was a third-team all-state pick and was the team captain.

After his Boston College career, Ruth was a second-round draft pick (42nd pick overall) of the New England Patriots and played for the team in 1986-87.

[BOSTON COLLEGE 2012 Media Guide]

UNIVERSITY & MEDIA

BOSTON COLLEGE

Boston College was founded in 1863 by the Society of Jesus to serve the sons of Boston's Irish immigrants. It was the first institution of higher education to be founded in the city of Boston. Today, it is one of the foremost universities in the nation, with a coeducational enrollment of nearly 14,700 undergraduate and graduate students from all 50 states and more than 80 countries.

Boston College has grown not just in size, but also in stature and diversity. Today, it is ranked 31st among national universities by US News & World Report. Its Graduate School of Social Work is listed among the nation's top 10, also by US News, while the graduate programs of its Lynch School of Education are among the top 20 and its Connell School of Nursing and Law School among the top 30. In addition, the Carroll School of Management is ranked ninth in Bloomberg/BusinessWeek's "Top Undergraduate Business Programs 2012." Boston College is among the nation's most selective universities, with approximately 34,000 applications received for its 2,250-member Class of 2016, and is numbered among the top American private research universities.

After more than a century of growth and evolution, Boston College holds fast to the ideals that inspired its Jesuit founders. The University today remains focused on its mission of helping students to develop their minds and talents while providing them with the motivation and compassion to use those talents in the service of others.

"Deeply rooted in its Catholic and Jesuit origins, Boston College offers an education that is distinctive in spirit and content, that is doubly rich with the best of human thought and with the profound insights of faith," writes Reverend William P. Leahy, S.J., who assumed the presidency of Boston College in 1996. "We believe that Boston College provides a transforming experience for young men and women."

A continued expression of this philosophy, based on the Jesuit principle of cura personalis, or care for the individual, is the faculty's dedication to teaching. BC faculty members have been honored for their teaching by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Education, while the University's overall commitment to teaching has been ranked among the nation's top 20, also by US News & World Report.

A Boston College education focuses not only on intellectual development, but also on personal, spiritual and physical development. Students are asked to use their abilities, education and acquired skills to help others in need, whether in Boston or Belize. For example, each year, BC undergraduates give some 550,000 hours of community service in the Boston area, while more than 650 students trade vacation for service during Spring Break. Nearly 2,000 students take part in retreats and spiritual formation activities annually.

Today, the Boston College motto "ever to excel" also extends to a broad array of extracurricular activities and opportunities ranging from sports to the arts. Athletics is integral to the University's focus on the development of the whole person in mind, body and soul. BC offers 31 men's and women's varsity sports — all of which compete at the NCAA Division I level — and perennially has one of the highest student-athlete graduation rates in Division IA.

BC offers a wide variety of resources that enrich intellectual and cultural life. Among these are the Jesuit Institute; Center for Ignatian Spirituality; Roche Center for Catholic Education; Church in the 21st Century Center; Boisi Center for Religion and American Public Life; Center for Human Rights and International Justice; Center for Christian-Jewish Learning; Winston Center for Leadership and Ethics; Center on Wealth and Philanthropy; Center for Retirement Research; Sloan Center on Aging and Work; Center for the Study of Testing, Evaluation and Educational Policy; TIMSS and PIRLS International Study Center; Center for International Higher Education; Burns Library of Rare Books and Special Collections; Robsham Theater Arts Center; McMullen Museum of Art; Center for Child, Family and Community Partnerships; Center for Corporate Citizenship; Center for Work and Family; Center for Irish Programs; and Weston Observatory.

William P. Leahy, S.J., became the 25th president of Boston College on July 31, 1996. Born in Omaha, he grew up on his family's farm near Imogene, Iowa. After one year of college at Creighton University, he entered the Wisconsin Province of the Society of Jesus in 1967. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy and a master's degree in United States history from Saint Louis University in 1972 and 1975, respectively. Between 1975 and 1979, he studied theology at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, California, earning a master's degree in divinity and a master's degree in sacred theology while there. Ordained a priest in 1978, he completed doctoral studies in United States history at Stanford University in 1985.

Father Leahy joined the department of history at Marquette University in 1985 and became a tenured associate professor there six years later. In July 1991, he was named executive vice president at Marquette, where he served until being named president of Boston College in 1996.

During his years at Boston College, Father Leahy has presided over an institution that has become one of the nation's best and most selective national universities. Since 1996, BC's endowment, sponsored research grants and student financial aid have more than doubled, and the percentage of student applicants accepted has fallen from 41 percent to 27 percent, while SAT scores have risen by more than 160 points. In addition, more than 100 full-time faculty members have been added, minority student enrollment in undergraduate programs has climbed from 18 percent to 28 percent and annual cash gifts to the University have increased from $24 million to $100 million.

During his presidency, undergraduate applications to Boston College have grown from 16,500 to more than 34,000, making BC one of the 10 most — applied to private universities in the United States. Currently, the University enrolls students from all 50 states and 80 countries, and its undergraduates have earned more than 300 prestigious fellowships, including two Rhodes Scholarships. Student-athletes at BC succeed in balancing the demands of academics and athletics, and BC consistently ranks among those universities with the highest NCAA graduation rates.

Following a comprehensive assessment and planning effort by the Boston College community, in 2007 the University announced a 10-year Strategic Plan that will build on Boston College's strengths and accomplishments of the past and will focus additional resources on undergraduate liberal arts education and formation, as well as integrated science research and teaching. The University also intends to increasingly apply the strengths of its professional schools to resolving critical societal issues, and foster even more international links. In addition, Boston College intends to remain faithful to its Jesuit, Catholic heritage and to become the leading Catholic university and theological center in the world.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Since Gene DeFilippo became Director of Athletics in September 1997, he has led the BC athletics program to an unprecedented period of innovation, growth, fundraising, athletic and academic success. His stated goal of keeping the student-athlete at the heart of the program has produced undeniable results. He also led the program through one of the most significant periods in its history as it transitioned to full membership in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Under DeFilippo's leadership, Boston College student-athletes' achievements in the classroom have become an immense source of pride for the University and its supporters. Boston College, along with Duke University, tied for second in the nation for overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in all sports among FBS (Football Bowl Subdivision) schools, according to data released by the NCAA last October. The 97 percent that both schools registered was second only to Notre Dame's 99 percent.

In addition, 21 BC sports teams received a perfect GSR score of 100, the most teams with a perfect score of any FBS athletics program in the country. This marked the third consecutive year the Eagles recorded the most perfect scores among their FBS counterparts. In addition, the football team's score of 93 was one of only six FBS programs in the country to receive a score of 90 or better. Last year, 331 BC student-athletes maintained a grade point average of 3.0 or better, earning the Athletic Director's Award for Academic Achievement. BC's graduation rate for all student-athletes has consistently ranked in the nation's top ten.

"Boston College is, above all, an academic institution," DeFilippo said. "We want to field competitive sports teams, and we want to win, which our teams do. But when we recruit student-athletes, we tell them they have an opportunity to receive a degree from one of the greatest universities in the country, and our mission is to ensure that they are successful. We are extremely proud of our student-athletes' accomplishments in the classroom."

Outside of their academic and athletic endeavors, BC student-athletes are perhaps best known for their devotion to community, as they spend numerous hours helping those less fortunate. In 2010, the BC Student-Athlete Advisory Committee was awarded the National SAAC Award of Excellence in recognition of the community service endeavors of Eagle student-athletes.

Boston College Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo

DeFilippo has undertaken an impressive overhaul of BC's athletics facilities that includes new football practice facilities, a total renovation of Conte Forum, including a new sound system, floor and video boards, new soccer, field hockey and lacrosse stadiums on the Newton campus, and an air-inflated bubble to cover the Alumni Stadium turf to provide an indoor practice facility for all sports during the winter months.

Most recently, a new AstroTurf surface and brick work have been added to Alumni Stadium and the Conte Forum weight room and equipment room have been totally renovated. DeFilippo was instrumental in raising money to build the privately funded $27 million, 72,000-square-foot Yawkey Athletics Center, which houses the football program, the Office of Learning Resources for Student-Athletes, and a large function area for general University use. After football moved into the Yawkey Center, BC undertook a multi-million dollar renovation Conte Forum to provide additional locker room and office space for many of BC's 31 varsity sports.

1997-present	Boston College	Director of Athletics

DeFilippo renamed the Athletics Department's fundraising arm (formerly Blue Chips) in honor of longtime Athletics Director Bill Flynn. Thanks to the support of more than 4,500 donors, Boston College Athletics completed a highly successful fundraising campaign for the 2011-12 fiscal year. With more than $20 million cash contributed from alumni, parents and friends, the department experienced its most successful cash year ever for varsity athletics when taking into account past years' totals that included significant capital payments for the Yawkey Center.

Commitments — often a indicator of future cash payments — were also strong with a varsity athletics record of more than $25 million pledged. This includes the largest commitment ever made in support of a varsity athletics team from an alumnus with the announcement of a $5 million gift to endow the head men's ice hockey coaching position. Additionally, the baseball program received the largest ever one-time commitment from an alumnus with a $2.5 million gift. The aforementioned gifts were among five commitments at the $1 million+ level. They also contributed to the 43 commitments of $100,000 or more. In the last two years, BC Athletics has received 87 commitments of $100,000 or more — a 45 percent increase over the prior two-year total.

Anne and Gene DeFilippo cemented their commitment to Boston College by announcing their pledge of $100,000 to endow a scholarship. The scholarship will be awarded annually to a female student-athlete who demonstrates outstanding academic achievement and financial need.

In athletics competition, DeFilippo has overseen some of the most successful seasons in Boston College Athletics history. The men's ice hockey team just won its third NCAA Championship in the past five seasons, its fourth since 2001 and fifth overall. The hockey team has competed in five of the last seven national championship games. The women's hockey team returned to the Frozen Four in 2012, and the sailing team has won 11 national team or individual titles in the past five years.

In football, BC produced an unprecedented 12 straight winning teams (1999-2010), capturing 103 victories during that streak. BC won an amazing 88 games in the 2000s (2000-09, including bowls), tying Auburn and Southern California for 11th among all teams in college football. DeFilippo also has overseen record-breaking success in men's and women's basketball and men's and women's soccer.

From 1993-97, DeFilippo served as director of athletics at Villanova University. He served as Associate Director of Athletics at the University of Kentucky from 1987-93, Director of Athletics at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg from 1984-87 and Director of Administrative Services at Vanderbilt University from 1983-84.

His coaching experience includes three years as offensive backfield coach at Vanderbilt (1980-82), which included the 1982 Hall of Fame Bowl. From 1975-79, he was offensive coordinator at Youngstown State University, during which time the team won two consecutive Mid-Continent Conference championships, 1978-79. In 1973-74, he was graduate assistant football coach for the University of Tennessee, coaching in the 1973 Gator Bowl and 1974 Liberty Bowl.

A 1973 graduate of Springfield College with a Bachelor of Science degree, DeFilippo earned three varsity letters as a quarterback in football during his undergraduate career. He received a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Tennessee in 1974.

He was named the 2010 recipient of the New England Prep School Athletic Council (NEPSAC) Martin Williams Souders Award, presented annually to a graduate of a New England independent school who made a distinguished record in sports and who since made a distinguished record in life through his/her ideals, leaderships and accomplishments. Past recipients have included George H.W. Bush, Sargent Shriver, Michael Erizzone, Dee Rowe, Bill Cleary, and former BC Athletics Director Bill Flynn.

DeFilippo and his wife, Anne, are the parents of three children — Christine Eldred (married to Matt Eldred), John and Mary and have one granddaughter, Katherine Eldred.

The DeFilippo Family: Matt Eldred, Christine (DeFilippo) Eldred, Katherine Eldred, Anne, Gene, Mary and John.

His publications have appeared in the Journal of Finance, Financial Management, Journal of Money, Credit and Banking, Financial Analysts Journal and other journals in finance and economics. He is author of Quantitative Analysis for Investment Management (Prentice-Hall, 1996).

JOHN KANE

Senior Associate
Athletics Director

Now in his 33rd year at Boston College, John Kane assumed his current position in February 1998, after spending six years as the department's associate athletic director/operations.

Prior to assuming his associate athletic director duties, Kane spent 11 years at the school's William J. Flynn Student Recreation Complex, including five as the center's director.

Kane oversees the sports medicine, strength and conditioning, and equipment operations. He also serves as the athletic department's liaison with the University's Office of Human Resources. He will continue to coordinate the department's athletic operations and facilities' scheduling.

At the Flynn Recreation Complex, Kane spent his first six years as the assistant director, organizing intramural activities. In his last five years, Kane's role as the center's director expanded to include all recreational activities in the building, intramural and club sports and additional administrative duties.

A track enthusiast, Kane was the head track and field coach at Bentley (Mass.) College from 1977-80. He served as the commissioner of the New England Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association for 17 years, before relinquishing those duties when he assumed his new duties at Boston College. As commissioner, he conducted three track and field/cross country championships for the 50 member institutions each year. He was on the NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Track and Field subcommittee from September 2000 to August 2004. He chaired the committee for two terms, serving from 2002 to 2004.

Kane and his wife, Ann, reside in Bellingham and have two sons, Ryan and Jamie.

JODY MOORADIAN

Senior Associate
Athletics Director/
Senior Women's Administrator

Jody Mooradian has been a member of the athletics department at Boston College since 2003. In her position, she administers the sports of women's basketball, field hockey, volleyball, cross country, track and field, lacrosse, softball, and rowing. Mooradian oversees the areas of Student-Athlete Development, Sports Medicine and Strength and Conditioning as well as supervising other internal functions of the Department and working with various groups on campus.

She serves on the ACC Women's Basketball Committee, and is Chair of the ACC Field Hockey and Volleyball Committees. She is a former chair of the NCAA Women's Rowing Committee and the NCAA Women's Volleyball Committee. She also served on the NACDA Board and is currently on the Learfield Director's Cup Committee for NACDA. She is a member of the board of the Collegiate Women Sports Foundation where she chairs the Honda Inspiration Award. Jody serves as an Adjunct Professor at Drexel University teaching online Sports Law and Collective Bargaining courses.

Prior to her current post at BC, Mooradian served as part of the Northeastern University athletics department for six years. During her tenure at Northeastern, Mooradian served as Assistant Director of Athletics for Compliance, Associate Director of Athletics, Interim Director of Athletics and Senior Associate Director of Athletics/Senior Woman Administrator. Mooradian also served as the Director of Athletics at Edinboro University of Pennsylvania from 1993-97 and was a Compliance Assistant at UCLA in early 1993.

Prior to her career in athletics, Mooradian was an attorney for a private law firm and for the Cigna Insurance Company from 1987-93. In addition, she was a District 4 New Hampshire State Representative from 1980-82.

Mooradian earned a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of New Hampshire '82 and a Juris Doctorate from the Delaware Law School of Widener University '86).

TOM PETERS

Senior Associate
Athletics Director

Tom Peters, who was promoted to senior associate athletics director in May 2010, is in his 21st year at Boston College. Peters joined the Eagles' staff as an associate athletics director in January 1992. Prior to coming to the Heights, Peters spent more than three years as associate athletic director at Tulane University. In addition, Peters served as Tulane's acting athletic director from December 1990 until June 1991.

Peters' responsibilities at Boston College include overseeing nine of the men's and women's athletic programs — men's and women's ice hockey, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's fencing and baseball — and serving as the department's liaison with numerous athletic-related support groups.

Peters has also served as tournament manager for a host of postseason events, including the 2009 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regional, the 1999 and 2003 NCAA Men's Basketball.

Peters currently serves on the executive committee of Men's Hockey East as well as the Hockey East Special Events Committee. He served on the executive committee of Women's Hockey East from 2002-03 to 2006-07. Peters is also a member of the men's and women's Beanpot Hockey Tournament Committees, which organize the annual competition between the city's four Division I hockey schools.

A 1971 graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Amherst, Peters was a three-year hockey letterman for the Minutemen. Peters earned a master's degree in sports management from the University in 1973.

Peters was then an administrative assistant at the University of Virginia, before joining the New Boston Garden Corporation and Boston Bruins as assistant sales and marketing manager in 1973. In 1976, he was named sales and marketing manager. From there, Peters moved to New Jersey where he was the assistant athletic director at Rutgers University from 1981-88.

A native of Arlington, Mass., Peters has two daughters: Nicole, a private equity and fundraising liaison and a 1999 graduate of Connecticut College, and Erica, who received her B.A. from Boston College in 2002 and Ph.D. in clinical psychology from the University of Vermont in 2010. She is currently a research scientist at Friends Research Institute in Baltimore, Maryland, and is married to Patrick Finan.

ERIC ZIADY

Senior Associate
Athletics Director/
Business
Operations

Eric Ziady is in his 14th year at Boston College. He was promoted to senior associate athletics director in May 2010. Ziady came to the Heights in March 1998 after spending nine years at Northeastern University, the last four as assistant director of athletics.

At BC, Ziady handles both the long-range fiscal planning for the department and the day-to-day monitoring and administration of all business operations. In addition, he handles football game scheduling and contract administration, as well as overseeing five of the men's and women's athletic programs (football, men's & women's golf and men's and women's sailing).

In 2010, Ziady negotiated the six-year, multi-million dollar sponsorship agreement with Under Armour that outfits all 31 sport programs as well as provides financial support for the department. The sponsorship is the largest in the history of BC Athletics.

A 1988 Providence College graduate, Ziady began his career at Northeastern as an assistant to the athletic director. Two years later, in 1991, Ziady was appointed athletic business manager. In this position, he was responsible for all of the department's fiscal activities, while also serving as the liaison with outside booster and support groups. In 1994, Ziady was promoted to assistant director of athletics and also served on the Huskies' senior management team that planned long-range departmental goals and policies.

Ziady, who earned both a master's degree in sports management and a master's of business administration degree from Northeastern, has twice served as a marketing consultant. In 1990, he worked on a corporate marketing project with the North Atlantic Conference (now America East). In 1992, he assisted the Boston Organizing Committee in marketing and fundraising in an attempt to attract national and international amateur events to the city.

He has served on NCAA subcommittees for fiscal integrity, the ACC Finance Committee, as well as competition committees in both the America East (baseball) and Big East (golf) conferences. Ziady is the former chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Golf Committee and currently serves as Chair of the ACC Awards Committee and also serves on the ACC Men's Golf Committee.

Ziady, a native of Andover, Mass., and currently resides in Needham with his wife, Lauren, and their children, Matthew, Lindsey and Courtney.

Dr Pepper ACC Championship Game
Bank of America Stadium- Charlotte, N.C.

With a capacity of 44,500 maroon-and-gold-clad fans, Alumni Stadium is the home of the Eagles. The current version of Alumni Stadium opened in the fall of 1995.

The roots of Alumni Stadium and on-campus football at Boston College date back to 1915, when the original Alumni Stadium was dedicated. The facility was located on middle campus on the site of today's Stokes Hall.

As Boston College enjoyed more and more football success in the 1930s and 1940s, the Eagles moved a majority of their home games to Boston's two major league baseball stadiums, Fenway Park and Braves Field (now Nickerson Field on the Boston University campus).

On Jan. 23, 1957, Boston College president Joseph R.N. Maxwell, S.J., announced that a new Alumni Stadium would be built on the BC campus as football no longer would be allowed in Fenway Park. A $250,000 campaign followed and on Sept. 26, 1957, the Eagles played host to Navy in the first game on the site of the present Alumni Stadium before a sellout crowd of 26,000-plus. The new stadium was constructed in an amazing span of 156 days. The game was arranged by then-United States Senator John F. Kennedy, but Navy spoiled the home opener with a 46-6 win.

In 1971, Alumni Stadium was expanded to 32,000 seats and artificial turf and lights were installed. Alumni Stadium was rebuilt again in 1988 as matching upper decks and a new press box were added. These renovations were part of the building of Conte Forum.

New scoreboards and instant replay screens, a new and improved lighting system, a state-of-the-art public address system, new concessions and rest room facilities and a beautiful brick and glass exterior façade combine to make Alumni Stadium one of the finest football facilities in the nation. BC installed a state-of-the-art Field Turf surface in the summer of 2004.

The scenic Chestnut Hill stadium, with the Boston skyline offering a splendid background in the distance, heightens the excitement and enthusiasm that is part of every Boston College home game.

ASTROTURF ADDED

During the summer of 2012, the existing artificial surface was replaced with an AstroTurf GameDay Grass 3D60H field. This custom-designed AstroTurf surface features the all new Horseshoe fiber. The fiber's horseshoe shape features two end columns with a thicker diameter. The design imparts mechanical memory so that the fiber remains upright longer. The Horseshoe fiber continues to spring back to its original configuration, even after years of heavy foot traffic or exposure to ultra-violet radiation.

A study at Michigan State University, funded by NFL Charities, found that AstroTurf GameDay Grass systems had performance values more like natural grass than any other synthetic product measured. In extensive testing, the Horseshoe fiber performs most like natural grass from ball roll, to slide resistance, to the biomechanical function of cleats penetrating and releasing properly. From an aesthetics standpoint, the fields look amazing. Making it even better is the fact that the football lines and logos are prefabricated and manufactured as part of the field, so the look is consistent.

YAWKEY CENTER

In March 2005, Boston College football staff and players as well as the Office of Learning Resources for Student-Athletes moved into the Yawkey Athletics Center, BC's new $27 million, 72,000-square-foot facility located behind the north end zone of Alumni Stadium. It includes new football offices, meeting and breakout rooms, locker rooms, sports medicine, strength and conditioning, equipment room, theater-style classrooms, recruiting and player lounges.

The building also features the Murray Family Function Room, a multi-function room larger than the Shea Room that benefits the entire BC campus. After viewing the company's impressive work at North Carolina, North Carolina State and Virginia Tech, BC contracted with DJS Design of Charlotte, N.C., for concept, design and construction of a football museum.

Located in the main entry lobby, the museum features a soaring bronze eagle atop a lighted granite pedestal as its centerpiece. A multimedia kiosk will enable visitors to watch video highlights of great games and players in BC football history. Visitors will be allowed to touch and have photos taken with Doug Flutie's Heisman Trophy, which is displayed in the open with no glass enclosure.

BC received a commitment of $15 million from the Yawkey Foundation to help fund the new building and other athletics-related improvements to enhance intercollegiate, intramural and club sports. Other benefactors generously donated the rest of the money needed to complete the construction, making the Yawkey Center the first structure on the BC campus to be built entirely with private funds.

Completion of the Yawkey Center created a domino effect of facilities improvements for sports other than football. Once the football and Learning Resources staffs had completed their moves, workers began a multi-million dollar renovation to Conte Forum. The construction provided new office and locker room space for many of BC's 31 varsity men's and women's sports as well as new office space for much of the administrative staff. Women's basketball moved into a new suite of offices shortly thereafter, and the old football locker room has been converted into five new locker rooms for women's sports. Many coaches and their assistants who had been working in cramped conditions have been relocated to new offices in the South end zone.

The Boston College media relations office is pleased to work with members of the media to meet their needs covering our football program.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for all Boston College home football games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Please direct credential requests, at least two weeks in advance of all home games, to Chris Cameron, associate athletics director/media relations (camerocrh@bc.edu), or Tim Clark, assistant director/media relations (timothy.clark@bc.edu).

Please include your name, affiliation, address, cell phone and e-mail address on all requests.

Boston College follows the guidelines set forth by the NCAA in governing the issuance of credentials. Season credentials will be issued only to daily newspapers and television/radio stations that cover Boston College on a regular basis. Otherwise, additional television/radio stations, weekly newspapers and Internet services will be granted credentials on a single-game, space-available basis. Assignment of working press, scouting seats and photo access will be allocated according to the following priorities:

1. Frequency of coverage of teams involved;
2. Deadline and transmission requirements; and
3. Circulation.

If time permits, credentials will be mailed; they also may be picked up in the Media Relations office. All others may be claimed at the Media Will Call window at Gate C.

PRESS PARKING

Press parking is located on the top level of the Commonwealth Avenue parking garage. A limited number of parking passes will be available for each game. It is recommended that parking pass holders arrive no later than one hour prior to kickoff to ensure a parking space.

Media members holding press parking passes must enter through the main gate of the University on Commonwealth Avenue and follow the signs for the Media Parking area.

PRESS HOSPITALITY

Food and refreshments are served approximately two hours prior to kickoff in the Alumni Stadium Pressbox.

INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless Internet access is available throughout the Alumni Stadium pressbox. To gain access to the secure network, connect to a wired network jack or the wireless network called "BostonCollege." Open a web browser and type <http://www.bc.edu>. Follow the network activation steps and you will be asked to restart your machine.

PRESS FACILITIES

Located on the west (campus) side of the Alumni Stadium playing field, the BC press box features seats for writers and scouts, a network television broadcast area, five radio booths and a photo deck. Writers, scouts and game operations personnel will be assigned to the sixth floor level of the press box and television film crews, radio crews and home and visiting coaches will be on the fifth floor level.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

Photographers and videographers are always welcome at Boston College games, and will be permitted to work along the sidelines, except for the marked area reserved for the team personnel only. This rule is strictly enforced. Photographers and videographers must wear issued identification vests, which may be obtained with a valid photo I.D. at the Media Will Call booth at Gate C.

PHOTOGRAPHER/VIDEOGRAPHER WORK AREA

A photography/videography work area is located in the Media Suite on the first floor of Conte forum, adjacent to the west concourse of Alumni Stadium. Wireless Internet connections, Ethernet ports, telephone and electrical access, along with work space, are provided. Check with the Media Will Call attendant at Gate C for directions.

MEDIA INFORMATION

RADIO BROADCASTS

Radio booths are available for the visiting commercial and student stations on the fifth floor of the press box. Telephone lines have been pre-installed in each booth. Stations wishing to broadcast a game should contact the BC Media Relations office at 617-552-3004 at least two weeks prior to the contest. The fee is $75 per line.

TELEVISION BROADCASTS

A 21 x 21 permanent network television broadcast booth is located at the midfield point on the fifth floor of the press box. This location, along with permanent camera locations on the 20-yard-line points, the north end zone and the field, have been pre-wired with multiple tri-axial cable drops. Any network production unit televising a game or event from either Alumni Stadium or Conte Forum must use this pre-installed cable.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Boston College locker room is closed to all members of the media for all games, home and away. Head coach Frank Spaziani and requested players will be available following a brief cooling-off period. Spaziani will address the media in the football meeting room in the Yawkey Athletics Center. BC press box personnel will provide instructions for accessing the area. Media wishing to interview players should notify appropriate members of the BC Media Relations staff prior to the conclusion of the game. Every effort will be made to bring requested players to the interview room.

Visiting teams will conduct their postgame interviews in the Conte Forum Media Center, located on the first floor and accessible via the north elevator.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with Boston College football players or coaches must be arranged through the media relations office. It is suggested that 48 hours notice be given for an interview request. The Media Relations Office will arrange an interview time that is mutually convenient for the player and media representative. Players are not to be called in their dormitory rooms, nor should they be contacted via cell phone or email. Rather, players will return telephone calls to members of the media. Players will not be asked to miss classroom time for interviews. In general, interviews during game weeks will be arranged between Noon — 2:00 p.m. on Wednesdays (print media) and 2:50 — 3:20 p.m. on Wednesdays or Thursdays (electronic media). Players will not be available to the media for post-practice interviews.

FRANK SPAZIANI CONFERENCE CALL

Coach Frank Spaziani conducts a media conference call each Sunday during football season. Contact the Media Relations office for the number.

Spaziani also participates in the weekly ACC teleconference each Wednesday. Media wishing to participate should call the ACC office for the number.

PRACTICES

In general, BC practices are closed to the media and general public. Videographers or photographers wishing to shoot practice may do so during the first four practice periods on Wednesdays and Thursdays (please contact the Media Relations office in advance).

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

collegepressbox.com is the official media website for ACC football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its 12 member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

BOSTON COLLEGE IMG RADIO NETWORK

IMG College, the exclusive radio rights holder for Boston College Athletics, produces home and away broadcasts for Boston College football. For the eighth straight season, Jon Meterparel will serve as the Eagles' play-by-play voice. He is joined in broadcast booth by expert analyst Pete Cronan. For the second straight season, Brian St. Pierre will report on the action from the sideline. Boston College fans can listen to the IMG Sports Radio Network on flagship station WEEI, 93.7 FM and 850 AM, any one of 13 additional stations throughout New England, or globally on Sirius/XM Satellite radio. Additionally, all games are streamed live over the internet free of cost via bceagles.com.

Meterparel is entering his eighth season as the voice of Boston College football and is also entering his third season calling Boston College basketball. The Weston, Mass., native began his career at WFNZ in Charlotte, N.C., and joined the Dennis and Callahan show on Sports Radio WEEI in Boston in 2000. The show is also simulcast on NESN and is routinely ranked number one in the morning drive ratings. Meterparel called Harvard University Football on TV and Harvard basketball on radio. He was also the voice of the NE Revolution. For his work on BC football, he was named the Lindsey Nelson Northeast sportscaster of the year in 2007. Jon and his wife Heather are the proud parents of sons Ben and Nick.

Cronan, a star defensive tackle and inside linebacker at Boston College who captained the 1976 Eagle entry, begins his 25th year as the color analyst for Boston College football. A second-round pick of the Seattle, Cronan enjoyed a nine-year career in the NFL with the Seahawks (1977-81) and Redskins (1981-85). He has been the color commentator on the Boston College radio broadcasts since 1988 and his broadcast partners have included Gil Santos, Dale Arnold, Dick Lutsch, Sean McDonough, Sean Grande, John Rooke and Jon Meterparel.

St. Pierre, a quarterback at Boston College from 1999-2002, is entering his second season on the Boston College broadcast team. St. Pierre finished his college career third on the school's all-time passing list with 5,837 yards and third on the all-time touchdowns list with 48 career TDs. He was the co-winner of the 2001 Scanlan Award, an award given by the Boston College Varsity Club to the senior football player outstanding in scholarship, leadership, and athletic ability. He was drafted by the Steelers in the 5th round of the 2003 NFL Draft and enjoyed an eight-year NFL career.
